WHAT MADE THOUGHT?
CAN YOU CHEW WHEAT?
ALCOHOL KILLS MANY THOSE QUEER RUSSIAN
—By Arthur Brisbane—

THOMAS McCARTER, head of New Jersey's public service corporation, voluntarily reduces street car fares, abolishing the ten cent "casual rate," and doing away with compulsory purchase of "Tolsons."
This is news, because it is so unusual.

Nevertheless, those that are fairly old, remember that the Manhattan railroad in New York made no money while it charged ten cents, and made plenty of money when it reduced the fare to five cents.

DR. IRVING S. CUTTER, dean of the Northwestern University Medical school, develops this theory.
Eons of years back, which means billions of years, ultra violet rays were much more powerful than they are now, and they "activated" pro-toplasm into life.

That's how life came.
The doctor does not tell us what activated the living protoplasm into thought, emotion, art, imagination.

Chairman Lege, of the farm board, finds a sensible way of unloading some of the wheat that the government bought to stabilize the price that wouldn't stay stabilized, and his unloading will help, not hurt farmers.

He will stabilize it by feeding it to the hungry. An excellent idea, and the wheat will be worth all that the government paid for it, no matter what the price per bushel.

ROMAN SOLDIERS carried raw wheat in a bag, and chewed it as they marched. Their skulls show teeth in wonderful condition. Much worn down.

Our citizens will hardly learn to chew raw wheat on the march.

SINCE 1920 and under prohibition, deaths from alcohol in the United States have increased 300 per cent, according to Dr. Hoffman, statistician of the Prudential Life Insurance company.

It is particularly unpleasant to read that deaths from alcohol have increased among women especially.
And it is surprising to read that in the United States, under prohibition, deaths caused by alcohol are more than 1000 per cent more numbers than in a majority of the civilized countries. No civilized country has more than 10 per cent of our deaths from this cause.

What is the matter with us?

The Russian government boasts, with reason, of achievements under the "Five Year Plan." It has actually gathered

Southeastern Ohio Favors Roscoe McCulloch

FIVE COUNTIES

GREAT SUPPORT

Reelection Of Murphy As

McCULLOCH AREA
Republican Organization
In District Looms As Great Factor

BY JOSEPH K. VOOREY
Staff Correspondent For The News
STUEBENVILLE, O., Oct. 24.— Southeastern Ohio—the wire stretch of five counties in the 18th congressional district—is one of the real McCulloch strongholds in the state. From the rural sections, which rally to McCulloch because of his dryness, to the industrial Ohio riverfront which backs him for his tariff stand, there is a unanimity of support for the return of Ohio's junior senator to Washington.

Precisely no part of the state is more thoroughly and more consistently Republican than that embraced within Jefferson, Colum-biana, Belmont, Harrison and Carroll counties. This district has elected Frank Murphy of Steubenville five times as U. S. representative and now it is ready to give him, for the sixth time, a large lead over his Democratic opponent, who this time happens to be Emerson Campbell of St. Clairsville. Belmont Republicans are confident that Murphy will carry even the home county of his opponent.

G. O. P. Well Organized
A tour of the 18th district impresses an observer with one outstanding fact: that the Republicans are thoroughly conscious of the advantages of organization.
Particularly is this true of the women. Under the direction of Mrs.
Ira Marshall Cronin of East Liverpool, state central committeewoman, an organization has been perfected to function in every precinct in this district. From two to eight workers are listed from each precinct. In a number of counties, notably Belmont, meetings are held regularly to advance the McCulloch, Cooper, Murphy cause. Never before has the district been so thoroughly organized as at the present.

in which they were taking off from Le Bourget for Cairo and Addis Ababa crashed and was destroyed by flames.

They were going to Addis Ababa to witness the coronation of Ras Tafari, as emperor.
The accident occurred after Lane and his companion had spent some time in trying to get off on their long journey with a heavy load of gasoline and oil.

Their first efforts to get the plane into the air had been unsuccessful and they had been forced to discharge some of their load.

East High School Team
Invades Reilly Field
For Grid Battle

Salem High's flashy football team plays its fourth night game of the season under the calcium glare of the floodlight system at Reilly stadium, clashing with Youngstown East High gridgers at 7:30 tonight.

The Salem team is expected to continue its winning streak to five straight with an easy victory over the Youngstowners who have lost four successive decisions on the gridiron and have scored only seven points all season.

East High, for the first time, will be able to present its full strength lineup having handicapped the team in its previous contests.

The Red and Black will be represented with its most formidable lineup while at least two teams are expected to experience action in the fray before the close of the game.

Johnny French, star fullback of the Salem team will not be in the Quaker City lineup when the team clashes with East. An examination of his ankle, injured Wednesday night, was conducted by Dr.
E. C. Coles this morning. Coles stated that the gridder had sustained strained ligaments. Another examination was to be held this afternoon by Dr. Coles to determine whether he should appear in uniform tonight for use in emergencies.

Hal Broda, former all-American football end at Brown university, will referee the game with Harry L. Wick of Canton as umpire and
C. W. Schnake of Canton head linesman.

BULGARIAN KING TO MARRY PRINCESS IN

Roman Catholic Ceremony
To Unite Lives Of Royal Couple

(By Associated Press)
ASSISI, ITALY, Oct. 24.—Kings and commoners, statesmen and hawkers, soldiers and priests converted on this little city today in anticipation of the marriage tomorrow of Prince Boris, Giovanna, third daughter of the Italian king, to Czar Boris III. of Bulgaria.

Prior to the ceremony a royal train bearing the bride and groom, King Victor Emanuel, Queen Elena and others attending them will arrive from Turin and San Rossore.
After the ceremony it will carry the royal figures back to Old Hauls while Boris and Giovanna leave for a short Adriatic honeymoon prior to a second ceremony at Sofia.

Catholic Ceremony
The Roman Catholic ceremony here is by special dispensation of the pope, who is permitting Gya-vanna to marry Boris of the Greek Orthodox faith, with the proviso that their children be brought up as Roman Catholics and that there be no succeeding Greek Orthodox marriage ceremony which might be construed as having been recognized by the Vatican. Because of these stipulations it is regarded as probable that the Sofia ceremony will be little more than a ceremonious registration of the marriage.

A last minute re-arrangement will permit the ceremony to be held in the so-called upper church of St. Francis.

An expert squad of traffic policemen from Rome has been imported to handle tomorrow's traffic, which will consist principally of the royal automobiles since all others are to be kept off the streets from the time the royal party arrives until it leaves. Altogether there are about 5,000 troops and police here for the occasion.

Grecian Queen, 35-cent
Besides King Victor Emanuel and Queen Elena, other royal figures present will include the former Queen Sophie of Greece, and no less than 35 princes and princesses of the blood.

Princess Giovanna is a tall, pretty black-haired, brown-eyed girl who will be 23 years old Nov.
13. She has known Boris for several years, their romance having been thwarted for a long time because of religious complications involved. She is said to have visited the tomb of St. Francis no less than eight times recently to pray that these objections be overcome, and that when finally they were overcome to have been insistent that the ceremony take place in the church sacred to him.

Boris is 35 years old and has sat on the throne of his country since abdication of his father, Oct. 3, 1919. He also is tall and is known as one of the handsomest monarchs of Europe. He is very popular among his own kingdom.

WORKERS FORM AUDIENCE FOR MARION RALLY

Roscoe McCulloch Takes
"America First" Stand
In Political Talk

(By Brush Moore—Leased Wire)
MARION, Oct. 24.—A policy of America first and the rest of the world afterward was advocated by U. S. Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch in a Republican rally held at noon here today in the auditorium of the Marion Steam Shovel Co., Marion's largest industry. The audience consisted largely of working men, although the meeting was thrown open to the public.

McCulloch declared the real issue of the national campaign is nationalism versus internationalism. He attacked capitalists who are investing billions of dollars in foreign industry rather than spending the money at home for the benefit of American labor.

The meeting was one of three political gatherings held here today.
Republican women held a separate luncheon meeting with McCulloch as their guest, while Democratic women from the eighth district gathered at luncheon to hear Mrs.
Bernice Pyke of Cleveland, state committee woman, and Miss Mary White, daughter of George White of Marietta, candidate for governor.

The senator assailed the stand of John W. Barton, vice-president of the American Bankers association, who is said at the association's recent convention in Cleveland that the American standard of living is too high.

McCulloch said the hope of America is to keep raising the standard of living rather than to lower it and thereby sink the country into the cesspools of poverty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Emmett has been under observation at a mental hospital here since Oct.

brother, Dr. F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon police headquarters here today.

The Ohionan, on the occasion of his first arrest 10 days ago, was held for Steubenville police on a charge of passing bad checks. The allegation of that city, however, refused to finance his extradition and he was removed to the Gallier hospital for observation.

Officials of Carroll county, Ohio, wired here yesterday that McBride also is wanted there on a charge of passing a bad check. Extradition papers on the new charge will be brought to Washington the sheriff

Relief Director Moves To

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—News of eral reserve board today to add a measure of optimism to the difficult unemployment relief task.

Meanwhile, Colonel Arthur Woods, the relief director, moved ahead in his preliminary efforts to gather with him the experts he needs to compose the general board of statement which is to lead government and business to finding jobs or aid for millions.

From every side, however, came news of steps being taken without awaiting the set-up of a central organization. Not only business men and industrialists but great numbers of workers were registering their willingness to contribute aid.

Two government branches took steps to help in a small but substantial way, the post office ordering all overtime eliminated and the work given to substitutes, while the shipping board announced it would

Series Of Meetings Will Start Relative To Law
October 28

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The first test of the flexible provision in the new United States tariff law, which President Hoover promised would be invoked to remove inequalities will begin Oct. 28.

It will take the form of a series of public hearings before the tariff commission to determine whether the rates on over 100 commodities are too high or too low. The evidence will be presented to six men, three from each of the two major political parties. They are vested with the power to recommend that President Hoover raise or lower the rates on any commodity by as much as 50 per cent. The chairman is Henry P. Fletcher, former ambassador to Mexico, Chile and Italy and former under-secretary of state.

The investigation will open with the humble subject of men's straw hats. But commodities of such major importance to world trade as pig iron, wool articles, boots and shoes, lumber, cement, sugar, olive oil, various vegetables, milk products, agricultural tools, fruits, certain wearing apparel and matches are to be investigated.

Many entertaining features are being arranged. Grand lodge speakers are expected to address all groups. The sessions following the initiatory work, which will finish about 4 p. m., will be open to the public.

Representatives from the lodges

(By Associated Press)
RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL, Oct.
24.—The government of President Washington Luis, which for three weeks has been fighting a widespread movement in Brazil, was overthrown today and the president resigned.

The blow which overthrew the administration was struck by a group of army and navy officials in Rio de Janeiro itself. A provisional headquarters being set up and a proclamation being issued to all Brazilians to end the civil warfare now in progress and to establish peace again.

The coup came with dramatic swiftness shortly after midnight.
Military police and some troops taking their positions around the presidential residence and cutting off traffic.

Demand Resignation
General Menna Barreto, head of the Rio de Janeiro garrison, acting in the name of a civil and military committee, went to the president and demanded his resignation, but for many hours the latter refused to step out of office.

During the early hours of the day the city was quiet, but later gangs of hoodlums made their way through the main streets and attacked the offices of two newspapers which had been supporters of the government. Furniture was thrown out of upper floors and was burned.

News of the coup was sent out by radio through the military committee and the strict censorship was lifted in order that the latest developments might be sent out of the country.

Later the provisional headquarters of the military committee issued a proclamation announcing the civil warfare of the past three weeks and calling for peace.

The proclamation called upon all Brazilians, whether in favor of the government or of the revolutionaries to support the peace movement.

BRITAIN'S BETRAYAL

The current flurry in Palestine affairs may be summarized quite neatly by approaching it as a conflict between Zionists' dreams and British facts. Interpreting the Balfour declaration literally as "calling for the establishment in Palestine of a national home for Jewish people, demanded that unrestricted immigration and unimpeded acquisition of land be granted them. The British, recalling that the Balfour declaration also said that "the rights and positions of other sections of the population shall not be prejudiced by Jewish immigration," have taken action intended to reduce or suspend Jewish immigration and to make it more difficult for Jews to effect the transfer of land from Arab owners to themselves.

It is not surprising that such a statement of policy should have disturbed the Zionist world organization and the American Jewish congress, now in session at Washington. Naturally, immigration and land are prime requisites in their movement to create a national home for Jews in Palestine. It is difficult, if not impossible, for them to understand that Great Britain's conclusions may have been reached with no desire to betray Jewish interpretations of previously stated policies.

The case cannot be considered with regard only to present factors having direct bearing on it. The British were to anxious to secure Jewish help in war time and they promised more than they could reasonably hope to see accomplished.

In 1922 the British government sought to clarify its position with regard to Palestine as a national home for Jews. It declared that it did not intend to make Palestine an 100 per cent Jewish home, only that the home should be established there. It also warned that immigration should be subject to the economic capacity of the country to absorb new arrivals. It is the present prevailing opinion that such a point has been reached and passed.

The present controversy, aroused by the British government's recently published communique on its future policy in Palestine, turns on the point that it conflicts with the terms of the mandate sanctioned by the League of Nations, which made Great Britain responsible for the conduct of affairs in Palestine. So hopelessly involved is the tangle of sentiment and fact that the outcome can scarcely be guessed.

What Others Say

A PROLIFIC NUT

Proprietary of the Wellman school who find delight in picturing the future progress of mankind have frequently foretold a time when a whole meal may be concentrated in a small cube. But why stop there? Even now there exists a common natural product, a nut with properties so extraordinary that its high food values becomes in comparison almost negligible. A negro scientist of Tuskegee institute has experienced for years with this nut and asserts that he has extracted from it products which have a hundred uses. The materials obtained from this nut, he says, may be used to make an automobile, to cover a kitchen floor, to feed the cow and the horses, to stain furniture, to dye garments, as a pickle, breakfast cereal, a beverage resembling cream to wash dishes, powder the nose and make paper, ink and rubber. Mr. Edison will note the last possibility with interest.

This marvelous product is the peanut. Who ever dreamed that a peanut stand was a potential drug store, grocery, garage, hardware shop and stationery store combined? Perhaps some day an inventive genius may create a household chemical plant for processing peanuts to extract from them some of these innumerable synthetic materials. Until that time arrives the housewife must be content to shop for the necessities of life—New York Sun.

NEW YORK Day by Day

by O.O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Thoughts while strolling: What in the world is a fitted bag fitted for? W. T. Benda, who makes those bags, A West 47th street hat check girl is the image of Janet Gaynor, red hair and all. Beggars who sit on church steps baring afflictions. New buses with side doors.

Eva La Gallienne, a London, England, girl, who made good in the city. No actress in New York inspires such applause as Belle Baker singing "Eli Eli." How many Sobol Brothers are there? That one certainly won't give that gorgeous lady a ticket? He did. The old fish-face.

Who remembers when plates were turned upside down over the silver in setting the table? Something a little bit all right about a young father who pushes a baby buggy these snooty days. Musical exchange bulletin board: "Wanted. Six hot crooners who look like Val Lee."

Comedy counter clowns in the Coffee Pots. A milk white roadster trimmed in garnet leather. And the show girl who drives it. A wise poet fathered the line: "Gather ye rosebuds while ye may!" And who knows right off who won the war of Roses? Gil Patten, the white-haired Frank Merriwell author.

Johnny Gruelle, who draws hilarious cartoons of the crossroads. A movie star has to be good to last six months these days. Youngsters going to Lysistrata—being obscene and not heard. Curb comics are saying Gilda Gray has a touch of writer's cramps. And the new dog song is: "Latter by latter."

The sun sinks behind Jersey in a splendid flame. Nothing will renew faith like watching a sunset. And some morning I must sneak up on a sunrise. They are not hard to take either. Rat faced pickpockets who hang out at jewelry auction sales. They always work out on me in the subways.

Dinner neckers drifting to shadowy Chinese faces. Orange drink places still running full tilt. The glassy smile of ladies who must live. Mark Hellinger and his wife, Gladys. Glad. What inspires a fellow to take up trombone playing as a career?

The dollar-five-and-ten game outlives a fad. Each player goes shopping with a dollar and the one bringing the biggest bundle of five and ten cent store articles to the cocktail party wins all the truck and a dollar from each player. After that everybody settles down to a stretch of serious drinking.

A huge chortle in a musical show. A young girl is asked if she is going to take bacteriology at college. She chirps: "Don't bacilli!" And if the boy editor of College Humor doesn't collect a fair take of royalties on that one he is not commercially conscious.

Speaking of colleges. I recently saw a letter written by a glorious Old Dad to a son who was graduated two years ago. The lad has been clerking in a Paris bank. Said the letter:

"Dear Son: I am transferring $15,000 to your Paris account. At the moment money has a glamour in your eyes. In thirty years the thrill of spending will begin to vanish. I do not expect you to account to me for a penny. If it undermines your moral stamina you would fall later in some other way. So I shall feel no blame. It would please me tremendously, for I love you with a greater devotion than you will ever know, if you wrote me at least twice a month wherever you are, but that is only a fatherly wish and not a command. I have arranged that your job there or one similar in New York awaits your return. You are to have for one year the leisure and freedom I would have liked to have had, but missed.—Dad."

Then there is the bankers' son who left home suddenly in a huff, leaving a note reading: "You haven't a chance to make me one of your vice presidents. I'm determined to amount to something."

Courtney Cooper tells of the East. Sider who grew to middle-age without leaving Manhattan Island. Then he went on a trip to Denver. In the middle-west solitude near Cleveland he was gazing out the train window at the pastoral beauty. Finally in a philosophic blurt he exclaimed brightly: "No matter where you go, you always find human life."

Proper Sleeping Position

"Do you sleep on your left side, or is the right side the best side to sleep on?" was a question asked me the other day. I scratched my head and appeared very thoughtful, but to be perfectly frank, I could not recall on which side I do sleep.

Numerous textbooks, investigations and articles have been written on this subject and it seems no two authorities agree. As a matter of fact, I do not believe it makes much difference whether we sleep on the right side or on the left side.

Sleep is brought about by fatigue and the body attempts to rest by the relaxation afforded during sleep. If you are accustomed to sleeping on your left side and sleep well, by no means force yourself to change to the right side.

The position you assume when going to sleep is not the position in which you find yourself on awakening. The body changes its position many times during the night. Have you ever watched children sleep, and noticed their curious contortions? They will assume different positions, tossing about quite frequently, yet they are thoroughly relaxed and are resting in their sleep.

Some authorities advise sleeping on the back, and then again others do not. Some advise sleeping on the abdomen and others warn against it, stating it is dangerous. If we were to listen to all the advice, we would not know how to sleep and the thought of that alone would probably keep a good many of us awake.

The most frequent question asked is whether it is safe to sleep on the left side. This question arises because of the location of the heart on the left side. Most persons believe it is not advisable to sleep on the left side, on the theory that it interferes with the action of the heart. This theory has never been proven and appears to be to be very doubtful. I would advise you to sleep on whichever side suits you. No catastrophe ever occurred from sleeping on the left side. I doubt if it will ever be proven it makes any difference. Providing we sleep well and get up refreshed, it matters not what the posture is.

Recent observations conducted at the Mellon Institute in Pittsburgh, show that restful sleep is accomplished by many bodily positions. As a result of these studies it would be ridiculous to advise any healthy individual to spend the night in one position. It is rare indeed for one position to be maintained during the night's sleep.

Even if you decided you should sleep on your right side it would be necessary to strap you down to guarantee that position. This would be the only method I know of to keep you in that one position. This method will not be recommended, of course.

Give yourself plenty of fresh air at night. Do not pile on the bed clothes too thickly. Do not crowd your stomach with a lot of unnecessary food just before retiring. Go to bed to sleep and leave it to your instinct to determine the position your tired body is to take.

The Stars Say

For Saturday, October 25

The dominating planetary influence for this day accents the sudden possibility of a radical change of far-reaching importance, reacting on the general affairs as well as the environment. This may have some rather undesirable effects on relations with employers, but in the main the auguries are for unexpected benefits and unusual experiences. However, this suddenly precipitated opportunity should not be too hastily or rashly embraced.

Those whose birthday it is stand at the threshold of a sudden and quite unforeseen change, affecting the employment, the general trend of events and the residence. Unexpected benefits are in store, but change and travel should not be too precipitately embraced. A child born on this day should be clever, ingenious and have unusual talents for scientific research and original investigation and accomplishment. It may reach a place in the public eye.

FIVE COUNTIES OFFER SENATOR GREAT SUPPORT

Reelection Of Murphy As Congressman Appears

Republican leaders state in connection to the county organizations, workers appointed from Columbus are pushing the McCulloch-Cooper fight, practically every church in the district has a committee working to further the dry cause.

Cadiz Proud of Dryness
These rural communities take their dryness with all the seriousness that its benefits mean to them. At Cadiz, Harrison county seat and home of Rupert Beetham, state prominent director, pride is voiced in the fact that no saloon has operated there since 1894. Cadiz frequently is spoken of as the dryest town in the district county in the state. Harrison politicians even go so far as to say that McCulloch will lead the ticket in their county. To them McCulloch means something more than a Republican nominee—he is the personification of the forces which oppose metropolitan wet tendencies.

Precincts To Be Polled
At the head of the McCulloch

campaign in Harrison county is V. F. Rowland, young Cadiz attorney, the county's Republican chairman. Mrs. Lillian Brown is in charge of the Harrison women workers.

The Harrison Republican organization plans to poll each of the 31 precincts in the county and make certain that every elector gets to the voting booths on Nov. 4. The two important Republican newspapers in the county, H. B. McConnell's "Republican" at Cadiz and the Williams family's "Press" at Prepeet, both will make definite stands for McCulloch in their issues for next week. Murphy also is expected to make a strong race in Harrison county where he has been a favorite always.

Meeting at Carrollton
In Carroll county the McCulloch-Cooper Murphy movement is going steadily ahead under direction of George Tulin, Carrollton merchant, who serves as Republican county chairman, and Miss Kathryn Westfall, women's chairman. Yesterday at Carrollton women from all over the county gathered at a luncheon meeting arranged by Mrs. Cronin and Miss Westfall. The speaker was Mrs. Clara Wood Derr, Cleveland member in the Ohio assembly. Honor guests included Mrs. Edwin T. Wood of Steubenville, the Jefferson county chairman, and Mrs. Sam McClain of Bellare, head of the Belmont county women. This meeting served as the inaugural point in the Carroll county women's campaign.

An important development in the Carroll campaign will be the return to the county of Ed T. Crawford, former state senator from the Stark-Carroll district, now acting as assistant treasurer to the U. S. shipping board. The Republican committee has arranged for Crawford to canvass the county and it is extremely likely that he may devote some time to covering Stark county.

Paper Indorses McCulloch
Harry Kemmer's "Free Press Standard," the Republican organ in Carroll county, already has taken a definite stand for McCulloch. Belmont county women began their serious work following a luncheon meeting Wednesday in St. Clairsville under the direction of Mrs. Cronin. A permanent organization was formed to be known as the Belmont County Council of Republican Women which immediately became a member of the Ohio Council of Republican Women. Officers are Mrs. Sam McClain, president; Mrs. Mayne H. Miller, vice president; and Mrs. W. O. Hoge, secretary-treasurer. This group will hold nightly meetings in various precincts until the day of election. C. Brady Bradfield, head of the Belmont Republican committee, feels that McCulloch's visit into the county several weeks ago is bearing more fruit each day. Belmont politicians believe that any strength Bulkley may show will be derived from the Bellare Bridgeport, Martins Ferry area along the river, but feel that the strong rural vote will more than offset any Bulkley advantages.

Miners Hostile To Bulkley
Any fear in the 18th district that the strong mining vote might be cast against McCulloch has vanished with the growing hostility of the miners toward Bulkley. This antagonism had its inception through the connection of the Cleveland candidate with the Warner Collieries, an organization which was instrumental in crushing the miners union in Belmont and Jefferson counties.

Congressman Murphy, whose reelection is considered assured, has been spending a great deal of time canvassing the district in behalf of the entire Republican ticket. Murphy is the most popular representative the district has even had at Washington and his influence in each of the five counties carries great weight. Murphy in an interview last night said "McCulloch will go forward from this week all through next week, gaining strength right up until the time of the election on Nov. 4."

Forrest Richmond of Toronto and Thomas Hudson are the Republican campaign heads in Jefferson county and John Irwin of East Palestine is the Columbiana county chairman.

Employment in factories also increased, though less than the usual gain for this season of the year. Residential construction was said to have increased materially.

The chief gains in employment came from the fruit and vegetable canning and the clothing industries and from retail establishments and coal mines. Employment dropped in the iron, steel, automobile and lumber industries, and so did their production.

Legge Objects
Suggestions reaching the farm board that its supply of wheat be turned over to feeding the jobless drew from Chairman Legge the statement the board would be glad to do so if congress would reimburse it for the cost of the grain, which was acquired in stabilization operations.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

About 150 people were interested in the Birthday party given by the Women's Missionary circle and the Ruth circle of the First Friends church Thursday evening at the church.

A playlet, "Thanksgiving Ann" featured the enjoyable program. The cast included Mrs. Raymond Rohr, Walter Regal, Rev. C. F. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Herbert. They took their parts unusually well.

Mrs. Ward Allen, president of the Women's circle, was in charge of the program. Mrs. J. W. Whitton and Miss Mary Herbert had the devotions. Here are the other numbers:

Vocal solo, Homer Ellyson; select readings, Mrs. Fred Capel; selection by a quartet composed of Mrs. L. L. McCluggage, Mrs. Harold England, Miss Effie Cameron, Miss Phebe Ellen Parsons, accompanied by Miss Bessie Park; piano and mandolin duet, Miss Parsons and Charles Wilhelm; closing prayer, Rev. Bailey.

Refreshments were served in the basement, which was resplendent with Halloween decorations.

Ambulance Speeding To Hospital With Two Dying Women Struck Machine; Hurts 3rd Person

TOLEDO, Oct. 24.—An ambulance speeding to a hospital with two sisters, brides of a few months, collided with an automobile last night and placed a third woman near death.

The ambulance was carrying Mrs. Mary Ench, 18, of Pemberville, O., and her sister, Mrs. Ethel Langerman, 19, of Woodville, O., when it struck an automobile in which Mrs. Anna Clark, 42, was a passenger.

The two sisters, already near death from burns suffered in an explosion while they were cleaning curtains, were pulled from the ambulance as the front of it burst into flames. Mrs. Clark was hurled 20 feet into the side of a building and it was feared she too would not live.

Beautiful hair!

Modern hair dressers arrange the hair so beautifully that it's bound to attract attention. That's why it's so important to guard its color and lustre; keep it in perfect condition.

There is no surer, simpler way to do this than with Danderine. Each time you use your brush just moisten it with this delicately fragrant liquid. Then as you draw it through your hair, it removes the excess oil; brings out the natural color; makes the hair fairly sparkle with new life and lustre.

How much easier it is to arrange the hair afterwards. How it stays in place. And try "setting" the waves with Danderine. They stay in so much longer.

Danderine quickly dissolves the crust of dandruff; puts the scalp in the pink of condition; helps the hair to grow long, silky and abundant!

Ohio Owes It To Herself To Return

U. S. Senator
Roscoe C. McCulloch

His record in office shows that he distinctly deserves to be returned to the Senate. He is a statesman of the McKinley school—fearless, clean and capable.

He vigorously opposes the lowering of our standards of living as advocated by the internationalists.

He is opposed to those who have voted for tariff for revenue only and for the letting down of the bars of immigration to the hordes of cheap labor from abroad.

He fearlessly fights to protect our business, our wages, our agriculture and our homes.

DEATHS

A. H. FRITCHMAN
Word was received by Salem relatives this morning of the death of Addison Hutton Fritchman, 60, of Cleveland Heights, which occurred at 12:30 a. m. Friday.

He was the son of Joseph and Mary Hutton Fritchman, and was born near Winona.

His Salem friends will remember Mr. Fritchman when as a boy he worked in the store for Henry Hawley on Main street. After three or four years of training with Mr. Hawley, he went to Burrows Brothers in Cleveland, where for many years he was in the department of office supplies. Leaving Burrows to go into business for himself, he handled office supplies.

During his life in Cleveland, Mr. Fritchman was an active worker in the Methodist Episcopal church. At the time he suffered an attack of heart trouble two years ago, he was giving many hours of his time as chairman of the building committee to work on the new church, the Church of Our Saviour, Cleveland Heights.

In 1896 Mr. Fritchman was united in marriage with Esther Hale, daughter of Jacob Hale. To them two children were born, Mrs. Edwin H. Cowley, of Cleveland Heights, and Rev. Steven Hale Fritchman, Peterham, Mass.

Besides his two children he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Charles M. Hale, Cleveland, and two brothers, E. B. Fritchman, Sebring, and John Fritchman, Phoenix, Ariz. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

JAMES HULLIHAN
James Hullihan, 72, of Pocatello, Idaho, died Tuesday morning, relatives in Salem have been advised.

Mr. Hullihan was well known in Salem having lived here until 17 years ago when he moved west. While a resident of this city he was employed by the Denny company. He came to Salem from Leetonia 29 years ago.

Mr. Hullihan is survived by his widow and three children: Mrs. L. H. Snell, Cleveland; Mrs. P. J. Hullihan, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Lloyd Brydon, James Hullihan and Catherine, of Pocatello Idaho.

The body will arrive here Saturday evening and will be taken to the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Morningstar, 291 West Eighth street. Interment will be Monday morning at Mt. Calvary cemetery, Leetonia.

Friends may call any time Sunday afternoon and evening.

MRS. ORA E. NUSBAUM
Mrs. Ora E. Nusbaum, 74, died at 1:45 a. m. Friday at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. McConner, 850 West State street. She had been ill for a long time.

Mrs. Nusbaum, daughter of Charles and Maria Taylor, was born Aug. 12, 1866, north of Salem. She had spent her life in this community. She was a member of the Christian church.

She is survived by three children: Mrs. McConner, with whom she made her home; R. C. Nusbaum, Canton; J. D. Nusbaum, Buffalo, and five grandchildren. One son, Jesse C. Nusbaum, died 11 years ago.

Funeral service will be held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday at the McConner home with Rev. M. J. Grabie, officiating, assisted by Rev. C. F. Evans; interment in Grandview cemetery.

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR MEET

White, Cooper Meet In Incumbent's Home City Thursday

(By Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, Oct. 24.—The trails of Gov. Meyer Y. Cooper, who asks re-election, and George White of Marietta, Democratic nominee to replace him, crossed for the second time during their campaigns last night in the governor's home town.

Addresses by Robert J. Bulkeley, Democratic candidate for senator, and a number of state candidates from both parties were added to focus the state's political attention here.

Gov. Cooper was the guest at a testimonial dinner at which he made his first prediction of a Republican victory next month and struck back at critics of his prison and welfare program.

Discuss Prison Fire
After reviewing his administration, Gov. Cooper took up the Easter Monday prison fire disaster and asked "where were these men, holding the office that we have held in this brief time, that now under take to make political capital out of a situation about which they did nothing?"

At Lima this week former Gov. James M. Cox blamed the prison disaster on the Cooper administration. Cooper continued that he did not wish to cast reflections on previous administrations "for their neglect, and I may say oversight, in not having made this penitentiary fireproof, 15 years ago, but in the brief period of time that I was governor I could see the necessity of making the prison fireproof and the work was under way. Albeit disaster caught us before we could finish the job."

Russia does curious things. For instance last year it distributed 12,000 tractors, and $24,000,000 worth of other machinery among peasants and others.

THE NATIONAL INCOME of Russia for 1935 is only 33,000,000,000 rubles, about $19,800,000,000. Yet, how much you can do with a little money. Our income is more than a hundred billions of real dollars. But if you suggested giving 12,000 tractors to anybody, you would be called, not merely Bolshevik, but insane.

MACAULAY, able head of Canada's Sun Life Assurance company, advises our federal reserve banks to buy $500,000,000 worth of good bonds, thus restoring price levels, increasing money in circulation, starting business recovery.

The federal reserve and treasury department officials say it would be dangerous "to force currency into circulation."

The war forces currency, billions of it, into circulation. Federal reserve presses worked overtime. But somehow, everything was prosperous, at least for a while.

It is proposed to spend two hundred millions, or so, of public money, to help the unemployed. Corporations are urged to tax themselves and contribute.

But you are told there must be no "dole," none of the English system, under which government gives the minimum necessary to live in cash, directly to those out of work.

PRESIDENT LUIS RESIGNS; REBELS IN FULL CONTROL

Provisional Government To Succeed Regime Of Former Executive

It called upon the revolutionists to suspend their offensive and the federal troops to do likewise. In addition it asked that plenipotentiaries confer with the provisional government set up in Rio De Janeiro in order to bring about pacification of the government.

The proclamation named five fertile as headquarters of the provisional government. It was signed by Leao De Deus Menna Barreto, general of the division, and Colonel Bertholdo Klinger as adjutant.

Term Ended Soon

The resignation of the president, whose four year term would have come to an end November 15th, had been demanded repeatedly by the revolutionary leaders who since Oct. 3 have been attempting a march on Rio De Janeiro and Sao Paulo from three directions.

The rebels had directed their movement also against the inauguration of Julio Prestes, president-elect, who was supported by Washington Luis.

Fall of the Brazilian government marks the fourth overthrow of a De Jure administration by revolution in South America since the first of the year. The governments of Bolivia, Peru and the Argentine have fallen before revolutionists. Some unrest developed also in Cuba, Chile, and to some extent in Mexico, but the governments of those countries remained in control.

In no case, except Brazil, however, did the rebellion occupy more than a few days. The tremendous popular uprisings which accompanied the movement were sufficient to upset the regime without great difficulty. Military governments are at present in power in Bolivia, Peru and Argentina. There was every prospect, until the re-ignation of Dr. Luis that the Brazilian revolution might stretch on for months.

ABILITY OF SENATOR TO STAGE COMEBACK FACES ELECTION TEST

Editor's Note—This is one of a series of dispatches prepared by the Associated Press describing the political campaign in various states.

LINCOLN, NEB., Oct. 24.—The ability of a veteran senator to come back after years of political retirement will be tested in the forthcoming Nebraska senatorial election.

The veteran Gilbert M. Hitchcock, 71, a senate leader in the Wilsonian days, is seeking to return to the upper house. He stepped from retirement to win the Democratic nomination and is now contending with a formidable opponent in Senator George W. Norris, Republican insurgent. Hitchcock has campaigned actively.

There are political seers in Nebraska who contend that Senator Norris is unbeatable. In reply to investigate the filing of Norris No. 2, a small town grocer.

Norris Defends Stand

In the present campaign Senator Norris has not only defended the many stands as he has taken in opposition to the administration but he also has served notice that he would never accept the senatorial assignment if he were restrained from what he termed "conscientious legislation."

Hitchcock has emphasized his allegiance to party ties and has declared that political parties are essential to a successful government.

In the gubernatorial contest are two men who were opponents for this office at the election two years ago, Gov. Arthur Weaver, Republican, and Charles Bryan, Democratic nominee.

Bryan, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee in 1924, a former governor of Nebraska, and brother of the late William Jennings Bryan was defeated by Weaver in 1928. Weaver seeking his second term, is campaigning with Senator Norris.

Nebraska also will select six congressmen and state officers. The prohibition issue has appeared in the campaign only in the congressional district (Omaha) where both the Republican and Democratic candidates are opposed to the present prohibition law.

COURT NEWS

Files Action

Mary Hunt Sturgeon, who lives at 829 East Second street, in Salem, one of the heirs to the estate of the late Priscilla Hunt King of Salem, has filed an action in the common pleas court asking that the court order partition of property in the estate, and set the share of the plaintiff off to her.

There are 31 defendants to the action, including Jesse Sturgeon of Salem, many of the defendants being scattered from New York to California and all being either cousins or nephews and nieces of the deceased who died on May 30, 1929, leaving neither widower nor children. The property to be divided among these heirs is a double house located on lots 112 and 114 on East High street in Salem.

WESTBRIDGE, N. Y.—There are anti-spooning vigilantes in this Long Island village. The secretary of a duly appointed committee has reported to the Taxpayers' association that 27 parties were broken up in a month. If a vigilante sees an occupied car parked more than half an hour he telephones the police and there is a summons.

NEW YORK—Honeymooners are exempt from absentee voter privileges. By ruling of the board of elections they must be home election day or not vote. Some voters who can't be home are allowed to mail ballots.

AT THE ROYAL
"Rich People and Trailing Trouble"
Showing at the Royal, tonight and tomorrow are the two feature pictures, "Rich People," starring the popular Constance Bennett, and "Trailing Trouble," featuring Hoot Gibson, hero of the screen's best western cinemas.

"CAUGHT SHORT"
At the Grand
Collection of witticisms and the recent stock market crash is said to have furnished the inspiration for the new all-talking comedy of the same title which opened at the Grand theatre last night with Marie Dressler and Polly Moran in co-starring roles and Anita Page, Charles Morton, T. Roy Barnes, Edward Dillon, Alice Moe, Gwen Lee, Lee Kohlmar and Greta Granstedt supporting.

Miss Moran and Miss Dressler have the roles of New York City landladies to whom the lure of stock speculation brings first unexpected profit and subsequently disaster when the inevitable Wall Street catastrophe occurs. The metamorphosis of the two ladies from their Washington Square habits of cooking and housecleaning to a period of suddenly acquired luxury in a fashionable Atlantic City hotel makes up what is reported to be their outstanding co-starring vehicle surpassing by far such previous silent efforts as "The Callahans and the Murphys" and "Bringing Up Father."

"LET US BE GAY"
At the State
Norma Shearer again scores a triumph in versatility in "Let Us Be Gay," her new picture which opened Thursday at the State theatre.

This delightful picturization of the Rachel Crothers stage hit further evidences Miss Shearer's superb skill in essaying roles of smart sophistication. As Kitty, the dowdy wife who awakens from marital doldrums to find her dashing young husband in the arms of a more attractive woman, Miss Shearer undergoes a striking metamorphosis that turns her out as an alluring woman of the world, a feminine cosmopolite to be reckoned with in mixed gatherings.

Rod La Rocque is the husband in this instance and his frantic efforts to remain his wife's love is amply justified by the startling change he finds in her. Marie Dressler is the eccentric old dowager whose trickery brings them back together, but not until she has almost lost the trick by playing her trumps at the wrong time.

Grid Spotlight In Ohio Centered On Smaller College Games

THE DAY In Sports

GRID STARS IN BASEBALL GRID SUPERSTITIONS

With the attention of sports lovers focussed upon football the baseball crowd feels somewhat out of the picture, but some of the best known big leaguers were real gridiron stars in their school days. Mickey Cochran, who is by way of being the best catcher in baseball and who starred in the past two world series, was one of the best halfbacks who ever toted a pigskin.

It was on a frosty October day that Boston University Mickey's mama mater, was pitted against the powerful Crusaders of Holy Cross. B. U. was rated about with B. O. in the critics' opinions, and the game popularly supposed to prove a romp for the Worcester eleven.

Hold Down Holy Cross Score
Mickey, who in those days was known merely as Gordon, was a halfback on the Boston U. team. For the entire first half he and his teammates assimilated a terrible beating, but so valiantly did they fight, and so hard did Cochran rush and kick that a single-minded he held the score down to 7 to 0.

Just before the half ended, Holy Cross solved the problem or thought they had by knocking Mickey cold. He was absolutely out and was carried from the field and to the hospital.

But they reckoned without the fighting Irish spirit in that brawny body of the present Philadelphia catcher. Mickey came to, fought off the doctors, got into his clothes and made the game by the time the fourth period began.

In that fourth period, Cochran carried the ball for Boston University on every available occasion, took it the length of the field's line time after time, and scored a touchdown.

Got That Point
This left the Boston boys a point behind. Who should try for the extra point? Who, indeed, but Mickey, or rather Gordon? "Take it, Gordon," said the B. U. captain who happened to be none other than his hero.

Cochran kicked the goal and tied the score, shortly before the game came to an end. Rip Collins, the Detroit pitcher, was a great halfback down in Texas, while Charley Berry, Red Star catcher, was an All-America and at Lafayette, Mike Gazella was another famous Lafayette football star. Bruce Caldwell and Ken Strong, two of the greatest halfbacks ever to play in the east, recently reached the big leagues, although none of them attained the fame that was to follow Mickey Cochran.

Hank Bruder "Jinxed"
Hank Bruder, Northwestern's unluckiest athlete, injured and out of the game through the better part of two seasons, finally adopted the number "13" on his uniform to bring him luck. And it did. Ten days after he adopted the number he came down with smallpox and now Northwestern's best chance of victory is looking out the window of the isolation hospital.

Bruder is not the only football figure to spread his superstitions before the world. A few years ago, you may remember, Red Grange came out of the West, wearing that famous "77", and proceeded to parade up and down the spine of Lou Young's Pennsylvania pets. Since that day Lou's youngster, acting as mascot for the Penn team, has worn a jersey with the mystic "77" spread wide across the back.

Just for luck, of course, and for the most part it has worked.

There are a lot of little superstitions among football players and coaches, just as there are in other forms of sport. But for the most part the footballers won't admit it. Being college men and representatives of higher institutions of learning they are inclined to feel a bit ashamed of their own superstitions and don't like to talk about them much. But college tradition—well, that's different. They'll talk about tradition by the hour, even though some of the traditions are little more than overgrown, educated superstitions.

Traditions, for the most part, are the outgrowth of rivalry between schools. For instance, here's the old ax tradition in California—a tradition grown out of the theft, by California of Stanford's huge wooden battle ax years ago.

The Michigan-Minnesota brown jug tradition is well known. Those two teams, as everyone knows, battle each year for the possession of an ordinary earthenware jug, which goes to the winner. That's an interesting story, too. Some years ago Michigan was playing in Minnesota, and as an extra precaution the Michigan coach took several jugs of water for the players to drink.

One of the jugs was taken down into the field to be used during the game, and at the end of the contest, the jug was stolen by a Minnesota student. It's that jug, stolen from the Michigan bench years ago, which today is the center of all the brown jug tradition you read about.

Important Battles To Be Played Saturday; Tech Plays Reserve

Ohio State's football team is idle this week-end, permitting the spotlight of interest to play wholly upon the 37 smaller colleges of the state this week-end.

Consequently, chief interest will be directed to Cleveland where Western Reserve will take its fourth consecutive whipping from Carnegie Tech; to Oxford where Miami attempts to stop the Buckeye championship march of the champion Ohio university team; to Delaware where Ohio Wesleyan entertains Hoge Workman's Simpson college team in an inter-sectional affair; to Oberlin for the traditional battle between Wooster and the Yeomene, and to New Concord where tangle Mount Union and Muskingum, two of the strongest Ohio conference teams.

That started a tradition. The shirt has been continued each year since, and at the end of the game the winning captain marches to his rival and collects his bet before the two teams leave the field.

Indiana and Purdue battle each year over an "old oaken bucket" and Illinois and Ohio State fight it out for the possession of Ilibuck—a crochety snapping turtle of uncertain age and somewhat treacherous disposition. Out in Oklahoma two teams battle annually for the possession of a stuffed and many Tiger—and great is the jubilation when this uncertain specimen of the taxidermist's art is hauled to the trophy room by the victorious eleven. Princeton's bonfire of victory is a famous affair—staged elaborately each time Princeton wins a championship. But few people perhaps know that the scene of

All these games are scheduled for tomorrow but there are four today which are distinguished for different reasons.

Heidelberg vs Toledo
Heidelberg's undefeated team, one of the finest in Ohio, meets University of Toledo, in Toledo tonight. The Toledoans have not won a game and probably won't even give the Student Princes a scare.

Wittenberg, one of the ablest teams in the state although once beaten and twice tied, journeys to Cincinnati for a game with Xavier. Davis and Elkins sails into John Carroll in Cleveland tonight. The Scarlet hurricane from West Virginia probably will make it two out of three—victories.

In the only afternoon game today, Bowling Green and Findlay, the only undefeated teams in the Northwest Ohio conference, battle at Findlay.

The really important games, however, are set for tomorrow.

Ohio university, undefeated champion of the Buckeye conference of the title at Miami. Both teams are strong. It is Miami's homecoming and the Red team will fight hard.

Cincinnati Meets Denison
Cincinnati and Denison will probably be playing for the last place in the Buckeye standings at Cincinnati. Denison is likely to win, but then may not.

Oberlin and Wooster, old time rivals of many years, probably will play their usually colorful game but Wooster appears the stronger this season. Muskingum too trounces precedence over Mount Union and the winners will undoubtedly have a lot to say about "the best team in the Ohio conference this year."

Other conference games involve Baldwin-Wallace at Akron, in a game Akron should win. Capital at Ohio Northern which may see Capital's three-game winning streak broken, and Marietta at Otterbein in a free-for-all. Capital has an excellent chance to win, especially because of northern's injuries.

Dayton's ambitious team will be in the east Saturday playing Boston college and probably will lose three games in a row for the first time in seven years. Kenyon looks capable of taking Rochester in another eastern game but Case is practically sure of its first defeat in attempting Michigan State at Lansing.

Fight Results
BOSTON — Dick Daniels, Minneapolis, defeated Johnny Risko, Cleveland, 10-6; Jack Dorval, Emporium Pa., knocked out Knute Hansen, New York, 12-0.

DETROIT—King Tut, Milwaukee, stopped Billy Townsend, Vancouver, B. C., 6-0.

MILWAUKEE—Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia, outpointed Dave Majer, Milwaukee, 10-0.

PRINCETON, N. J. — Herman Perlick, Kalamazoo, Mich., knocked out Jackie Shupack, Paterson, 10-0. Henry Perlick, Kalamazoo, stopped Pete Petrolle, Schenectady, N. Y., 17-0.

RISKO DEFEATED ON FOUL BLOW

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—A new young heavyweight from out of the west has hurled "that dangerous stumbling block to all fighters' ambitions to reach the inner circle of championship contenders — Johnny Risko of Cleveland.

Dick Daniels of Minneapolis, knocked the Cleveland biker down for the count of nine in the second round of a 10-round match here last night, then withstood Johnny's terrific comeback and finally won on a foul in the seventh.

The Minneapolis battler, outweighed almost 13 pounds as he entered the ring at 185½, first surprised the crowd by scoring a knockdown in the first round. Risko seemed dazed as he started the second round and took a terrific right hook to the head. The referee reached nine in his count before Risko got to his feet.

At the start of the third, however, Johnny gave Daniels a heavy beating with blows to the body and kept the barrage up until the end of the contest, although Daniels rallied to win the fifth round and was exchanging punches on even terms when Risko landed a clear low blow after having previously been warned.

Risko forfeited his share of the gate receipts under the Massachusetts rules.

BIG GAMES IN EAST SATURDAY

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Half a million football fans will turn out for the east's more than 50 games tomorrow, but close to 350,000 of them will be scattered among half a dozen contests.

In point of attendance, Yale's joust with the Army at New Haven; the all-metropolitan duel between Fordham and New York university in the Yankee stadium and Notre Dame's invasion of the east to meet the Pitt Panthers, will run a close race.

These three games should draw about 230,000 spectators with 80,000 in the Yankee stadium and 75,000 apiece in the Yale bowl and the Pitt stadium. Some 120,000 probably will be distributed among three other big duels, Harvard-Dartmouth at Harvard stadium, Temple-Villanova at Philadelphia, and Princeton-Navy at Princeton.

Lagging a bit behind in point of attendance will be such classes as Brown-Holy Cross at Providence; Penn State-Colgate at State College and Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson in a night game at Atlantic City.

Vanderbilt Meets Alabama Gridders

ATLANTA, Oct. 24.—The clash of two unbeaten football teams—Vanderbilt and Alabama—predominates Saturday's southern scoreboard, but at least four other tilts are tied

MR. LLOYD GEORGE
By Charles Mallet

It is seldom anyone has the courage to write an expose of a man prominent in politics, who has held offices of great responsibility, during his lifetime. But Sir Charles Mallet, puts Mr. Lloyd George under a pitiless microscope in his book "Mr. Lloyd George." He portrays the redoubtable Lloyd George as a veritable bull in a china shop, who can always be depended upon to say the wrong thing at the wrong time, and to make a wrong gesture at the most inopportune moments. He withholds nothing, prefacing his remarks with the statement that he wishes "to take full responsibility" for what he has written. Sir Mallet says in no uncertain terms that Lloyd George's reputation has sprung from legend and not actual knowledge of the facts. He states that Lloyd George has been guilty of many mistakes, from the platform, sacrificing truth for sentimental emotion. In short Sir Charles Mallet considers the return of Lloyd George to any sort of power would be a grave disaster to Great Britain. He has been frank—no one can accuse him of not being a fearless wielder of a biting pen. His study of Great Britain's one time man of the hour is startling news, especially in consideration of the fact that the world has always believed him to be indispensable to Great Britain's welfare.

The book is published by the E. D. Dutton Co., New York.

EVERYMAN: A MORAL PLAY
The theatre is one of the oldest of the arts. Its most superb examples were born, developed and refined in the fire of ancient Greece. Then it pined away until the middle ages when it was reborn in the church.

The greatest and simplest of all the medieval moral or mystery plays is EVERYMAN, an inspiring and dignified play, exalted in thought but phrased in the quaint dialect of the early centuries which lends to its lofty character a humorous turn.

In the midst of his earthly revels, all mankind, symbolized by one named Everyman, is called to account by the messenger Death, to the Most High Father. Death, in this allegory is the acid test, and not one of Everyman's earthly companions will accompany him on the perilous journey, save his Good Deeds who had at that to be raked from the ashes of his misdeeds: Kindred, Fellowship, Goods, Strength, Discretion, Five-Wits, Beauty and Knowledge, all desert him.

Guided by Good Deeds and purged by Confession and contrition, Everyman lays himself peacefully in his cave of sleep and is welcomed on high.

The charm of this edition lies in Thomas Derrick's wood cuts which perfectly reflect the meaning of the text but are exceedingly diverting in their tendency to myth.

EVERYMAN, A MORAL PLAY, by Thomas Derrick is published by E. P. Dutton.

Ohio Girl is Brightest

FROM three to twelve. That's the period which is most important to your child's development. And that's the time many are retarded mentally and physically by constipation.
Watch your child, mother! At the first sign of bad breath, coated tongue, headache, biliousness, lack of energy or appetite, give a little California Fig Syrup.
This pure vegetable product cleanses, regulates a child's bowels without discomfort. No danger of forming the laxative habit when California Fig Syrup is used. For it tones and strengthens weak bowels. In colds and children's diseases, employ its gentle aid to keep the system from becoming clogged with germs or waste.
Mothers everywhere are eager to tell of the benefits secured for their children. Mrs. C. J. Polzner, 1314 East 88th St., Cleveland, says: "I have used California Fig Syrup with Rita Agnes for two years in cases of upsets, bad breath, coated tongue or constipation. It keeps her the brightest, happiest six-year-old I know!"
Look for the name California when buying. That is on every carton of the genuine, for your protection.

Former Messenger Boy Will Make Bow As Opera Singer

(By United Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 24 — Hamilton Forrest, a young American composer who a few years ago was a Chicago office boy, will be given his first public recognition when Mary Garden sings the title role of Camille in the 1936-37 Civic Opera season.

Forrest was recognized first by Mary Garden as a musical genius. He has had no college education and limited musical schooling beginning his career as a messenger boy for a brokerage house. He abandoned the world of finance for that of music when forced to stop because of a nervous breakdown.

Forrest, an aggressive 28-year-old man, has few of the moody characteristics popularly expected of famous musicians. Both his parents had musical ability and his early training caused him to retain an interest in music even during his career as office boy.

Private Audience
His first outstanding classical production was Yvra, which he played for Mary Garden at a private audience. The prima donna recognized his worth, helped him to arrange for further training in France.

The young composer, upon reaching Paris, lost interest in study,

however, and went to a French village in Normandy. It was there that he conceived the idea for Camille.

He completed a draft of the opera, which will make its world premiere in his home town, and returned to America to consult with Miss Garden. He returned to France the following year and completed the orchestration.

Forrest drew his inspiration for the opera from the famous story and play by Alexandre Dumas. Much of the original drama, he changed, however.

Jazz In Opera
Camille is one of the few operatic works ever written which contains modern language and jazz music. Current song hits are used in one scene.

The plot was taken from the life of a girl whom Forrest knew in Normandy. Her life and death closely parallel that of Camille, but the staging of the opera is entirely different from the drama, with division in three acts and four scenes. Marguerite and her lover, Armand Duval, are the chief characters. Armand's father asks Marguerite to withdraw from the life of his son and she consents. She tricks Armand into believing she has ceased to love him and they part.

The last act shows Marguerite critically ill and hoping for the return of Armand. Her wish is granted. Armand appears and she dies in his arms.

IN CASE AFTER CASE OWA-TON-NA PROVES ITS MERITS

"This Fine Old Indian Remedy Has Been a Wonderful Help in Our Family," Says Mr. Myers

The praise which Mr. Fred W. Myers, 1216 Sycamore Ave., S. E. Canton, Ohio gives Owa-Ton-Na is not unusual in its history since thousands of endorsements have been received in mild as well as obstinate disorders. Mr. Myers says: "For several years, I suffered with serious disorders which seemed to keep me in a run down condition. Stomach, liver and kidneys all seemed to be afflicted. I was troubled with constipation and rheumatic pains in my hip and shoulders caused me a great deal of suffering."

MR. FRED W. MYERS

"I started to take Owa-Ton-Na to build up my system and it certainly has done the work. Why, I feel like a different man altogether. In a short time, my bowels began to act regularly, headaches and dizzy spells disappeared. My kidneys acted better than they have for a long time. Bladder irritation disappeared. Now I can sit down to the table and enjoy a good meal; I have a wonderful appetite and food doesn't disagree with me. Those terrible pains in my hip and shoulders are gone. I go to bed at night and sleep fine, getting up in the morning feeling refreshed. My wife and entire family are taking Owa-Ton-Na and are having wonderful results. It certainly has been a big help in our family and we gladly recommend it to other sufferers." "Why suffer from these conditions which cause so much misery? Owa-Ton-Na has proved its merits in thousands of cases of kidney, liver, stomach and bowel disorders, rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness and a general run down condition of health. # CHASSEURS JOIN INSURGENT ARMY

Federal Battalion Quits To Join In Movement In Brazil Battles

PARANA, Brazil, Oct. 24.—The Brazilian revolution command was informed today that the nineteenth battalion of chasseurs, stationed at Timbo, state of Bahia, had revolted and joined the insurgent movement.

Timbo is a railroad center about 100 miles away from Bahia, third largest city of Brazil, and the insurgent advisers claimed that the federal detachment opened up the way for their advance directly into Bahia on the railroad line between the two cities.

It was presumed here that the army of Captain Juarez Tavora, which within the past few days has invaded and over-run the states of Pernambuco, Alagoas and Sergipe, cannot be far from Timbo if it has not already reached this point in its advance down the coast toward Bahia.

Rebel troops claimed yesterday to have repelled a strong federal attempt to destroy Senegs bridges across the Rio Taguary, just south of Itarare. The effect would have been to cut the line of communication of the insurgent vanguard which has advanced beyond Itarare.

COLUMBIANA

The Sorosis society met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Quigley, Leetonia road. The program was a miscellaneous one. Mrs. Edward Bierman gave a review, Mrs. E. T. Coyle an account of a motor tour of the south; and Mrs. S. S. Weaver, Miss Elizabeth Fackinger and Mrs. T. J. Tidd gave readings from the works of American humorists, Donald Ogden Stewart, Robert Benchley and Stephen Leacock. Mrs. H. E. Weaver gave a review of current films and plays and Mrs. R. H. Vaughn and Mrs. Fred Weiss and Mrs. Quigley read five minute papers on three women noted in arts: Carrie Jacobs Bond, Amy Lowell and Mary Cassatt.

The candy Cascaret at night—the next morning you're feeling fine. Breath is sweetened; tongue cleared; biliousness, headaches, dizziness, gas vanish. Repeat the treatment two or three nights to get the souring waste out of your system. See how appetite and energy return; how digestion improves.

The action of Cascaret is sure, complete, helpful to everyone. They are made from cascara, which doctors agree actually strengthens bowel muscles. All drug stores have the 10¢ boxes.

WHAT MADE THOUGHT?
CAN YOU CHEW WHEAT?
THOSE QUEER RUSSIANS

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

THOMAS McCARTER, head of New Jersey's public service corporation, voluntarily reduces street car fares, abolishing the ten cent "casual rate," and doing away with compulsory purchase of "Tokens." This is news, because it is so unusual.

Nevertheless, those that are fairly old, remember that the Manhattan railroad in New York made no money while it charged ten cents, and made plenty of money when it reduced the fare to five cents.

DR. IRVING S. CUTTER, dean of the Northwestern University Medical school, develops this theory. Eons of years back, which means billions of years, ultra violet rays were much more powerful than they are now, and they "activated" protoplasm into life.

That's how life came. The doctor does not tell us what activated the living protoplasm into thought, emotion, art, imagination.

Chairman Legge, of the farm board, finds a sensible way of reloading some of the wheat that the government bought to stabilize the price that wouldn't stay stabilized, and his unloading will help, not hurt farmers. He will stabilize it by feeding it to the hungry. An excellent idea and the wheat will be worth all that the government paid for it, no matter what the price per bushel.

ROMAN SOLDIERS carried raw wheat in a bag, and chewed it as they marched. Their skulls show teeth in wonderful condition. Much worn down.

Our citizens will hardly learn to chew raw wheat on the march.

SINCE 1920 and under prohibition, deaths from alcohol in the United States have increased 300 per cent, according to Dr. Hoffman, statistician of the Prudential Life Insurance company.

It is particularly unpleasant to read that deaths from alcohol have increased among women especially. And it is surprising to read that in the United States, under prohibition, deaths caused by alcohol are more than 1900 per cent more numerous than in a majority of the civilized countries. No civilized country has more than 10 per cent of its deaths from that cause.

What is the matter with us?

The Russian government boasts, with reason, of achievements under the "Five Year Plan." It has actually gathered

In District Looms As

BY JOSEPH K. VODREY

Staff Correspondent For The News

STEUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 24.—

Southeastern Ohio—the wire stretch of five counties in the 18th congressional district—is one of the real McCulloch strongholds in the state. From the rural sections, which rally to McCulloch because of his dryness, to the industrial Ohio riverfront which backs him for his tariff stand, there is a unanimity of support for the return of Ohio's junior senator to Washington.

Precisely no part of the state is more thoroughly and more consistently Republican than that embraced within Jefferson, Columbiana, Belmont, Harrison and Carroll counties. This district has elected Frank Murphy of Steubenville five times as U. S. representative and now it is ready to give him, for the sixth time, a large lead over his Democratic opponent, who this time happens to be Emerson Campbell of St. Clairsville. Belmont Republicans are confident that Murphy will carry even the home county of his opponent.

G. O. P. Well Organized
A tour of the 18th district impresses an observer with one outstanding fact: that the Republicans are thoroughly conscious of the advantages of organization. Particularly is this true of the women. Under the direction of Mrs. Ila Marshall Cronin of East Liverpool, state central committee chairman, an organization has been perfected to function in every precinct in this district. From two to eight workers are listed from each precinct. In a number of counties, notably Belmont, meetings are held regularly to advance the McCulloch, Cooper, Murphy cause. Never before has the district been so thoroughly organized as at the present.

NIGHT CONTEST

Invades Reilly Field
For Grid Battle

Salem High's flashy football team plays its fourth night game of the season under the calcium glare of the floodlight system at Reilly stadium, clashing with Youngstown East High gridders at 7:30 tonight.

The Salem team is expected to continue its winning streak to five straight with an easy victory over the Youngstowners who have lost four successive decisions on the gridiron and have scored only seven points all season.

East High, for the first time, will be able to present its full strength injuries having handicapped the team in its previous contests.

The Red and Black will be represented with its most formidable lineup while at least two teams are expected to experience action in the fray before the close of the game.
Johnny French, star fullback of the Salem team will not be in the Quaker City lineup when the team clashes with East. An examination of his ankle, injured Wednesday night, was conducted by Dr. E. C. Coles this morning. Coles stated that the gridders had sustained strained ligaments. Another examination was to be held this afternoon by Dr. Coles to determine whether he should appear in uniform tonight for use in emergencies.
Hal Broda, former all-American football end at Brown university, will referee the game with Harry L. Wick of Canton as umpire and C. W. Schnake of Canton head linesman.

BULGARIAN KING TO MARRY PRINCESS IN

Roman Catholic Ceremony
To Unite Lives Of
Royal Couple

(By Associated Press)

ASSISI, ITALY, Oct. 24.—Kings and commoners, statesmen and hawkers, soldiers and priests converged on this little city today in anticipation of the marriage to-morrow of Princess Giovanna, third daughter of the Italian king, to Czar Boris III. of Bulgaria.

Prior to the ceremony a royal train bearing the bride and groom, King Victor Emmanuel, Queen Elena and others attending them will arrive from Turin and San Rossore. After the ceremony it will carry the royal figures back to Old Hauls while Boris and Giovanna leave for a short Adriatic honeymoon prior to a second ceremony at Sofia.

Catholic Ceremony

The Roman Catholic ceremony here is by special dispensation of the pope, who is permitting Giovanna to marry Boris, of the Greek Orthodox faith, with the proviso that their children be brought up as Roman Catholics and that there be no succeeding Greek Orthodox marriage ceremony which might be construed as having been recognized by the Vatican. Because of these stipulations it is regarded as probable that the Sofia ceremony will be little more than a ceremonious registration of the marriage.

A last minute re-arrangement will permit the ceremony to be held in the so-called upper church of St. Francis.

An expert squad of traffic policemen from Rome has been imported to handle tomorrow's traffic, which will consist principally of the royal automobiles since all others are to be kept off the streets from the time the royal party arrives until it leaves. Altogether there are about 5,000 troops and police here for the occasion.

Grecian Queen, Present

Besides King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena, other royal figures present will include the former Queen Sophie of Greece, and no less than 25 princes and princesses of the blood.

Princess Giovanna is a tall, pretty black-haired, brown-eyed girl who will be 23 years old Nov. 1.

OHIO NEEDS NEW STATE HOSPITAL

Commission Agrees New Institution Will Be Necessary Soon

COLUMBUS, Oct. 24.—That a new state hospital for the insane is needed immediately and that two or four more such institutions may be necessary in Ohio within the next 10 years is the opinion held today by members of Gov. Myers A. Cooper's state welfare advisory commission.

The commission, at a conference here with Welfare Director Hal H. Griswold Wednesday reached the agreement that a new state hospital for the insane should be erected at once in Northeastern Ohio.

It is the belief of members of the commission that the proposed hospital will be filled as soon as it is ready for occupancy, due to the fact that many insane persons can not now be admitted to the existing state hospitals because of their overcrowded condition.

All new hospitals should be built in rural territory, in the opinion of the commission.

Members of the commission propose to visit all state hospitals soon.

According to police reports they had no trace of the car Friday morning. The license number is 762-281.

Roscoe McCulloch Takes
"America First" Stand
In Political Talk

(By Brush-Moore Leased Wire)

MARION, Oct. 24.—A policy of America first and the rest of the world afterward was advocated by U. S. Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch in a Republican rally held at noon here today in the auditorium of the Marion Steam Shovel Co., Marion's largest industry. The audience consisted largely of working men, although the meeting was thrown open to the public.

McCulloch declared the real issue of the national campaign is nationalism versus internationalism. He attacked capitalists who are investors of billions of dollars in foreign industry rather than spending the money at home for the benefit of American labor.

The meeting was one of three political gatherings held here today. Republican women held a separate luncheon meeting with McCulloch as their guest, while Democratic women from the eighth district gathered at luncheon to hear Mrs. Bernice Pyke of Cleveland, state committee woman, and Miss Mary White, daughter of George White of Marietta, candidate for governor.

The speaker assailed the stand of John W. Barton, vice-president of the American Bankers association, who is said at the association's recent convention in Cleveland that the American standard of living is too high.

McCulloch said the hope of America is to keep raising the standard of living rather than to lower it and thereby sink the country into the cesspools of poverty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Emmett McBride, 59, of Salineville, O., who has been under observation at a mental hospital here since Oct. 14, following complaints of his brother, Dr. F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, was again under arrest at police headquarters here today.

The Ohioan, on the occasion of his first arrest 19 days ago, was held for Steubenville police on a charge of passing bad checks. The authorities of that city however refused to finance his extradition and he was removed to the Gallinger hospital for observation.

Officials of Carroll county, Ohio, wired here yesterday that McBride also is wanted there on a charge of passing a bad check. Extradition papers on the new charge will be brought to Washington the sheriff advised.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—News of better industrial and construction activity in Sept. came from the federal reserve board today to add a measure of optimism to the difficult unemployment relief task.

Meanwhile, Colonel Arthur Woods, the relief director, moved ahead in his preliminary efforts to gather with him the experts he needs to compose the general board of strategy which is to lead government and business to finding jobs or aid for millions.

From every side, however, came news of steps being taken without awaiting the set-up of a central organization. Not only business men and industrialists but great numbers of workers were registering their willingness to contribute aid. Two government branches took steps to help in a small but substantial way, the post office ordering all overtime eliminated and the work given to substitutes, while the shipping board announced it would "forget" for the time being the plan to cut down the merchant fleet corporation's staff in Washington and elsewhere.

HOOVER TARIFF PROVISION WILL

Series Of Meetings Will Start Relative To Law

(United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The first test of the flexible provision in the new United States tariff law, which President Hoover promised would be invoked to remove inequalities will begin Oct. 28. It will take the form of a series of public hearings before the tariff commission to determine whether the rates on over 100 commodities are too high or too low. The evidence will be presented to six men, three from each of the two major political parties. They are vested with the power to recommend that President Hoover raise or lower the rates on any commodity by as much as 50 per cent. The chairman is Henry P. Fletcher, former ambassador to Mexico, Chile and Italy and former under-secretary of state.

The investigation will open with the humble subject of men's straw hats. But commodities of such major importance to world trade as pig iron, wool articles, boots and shoes, lumber, cement, sugar, olive oil, various vegetables, milk products, agricultural tools, fruits, certain wearing apparel and matches are to be investigated.

Thirteen Hearings

Thirteen hearings have been scheduled between Oct. 28 and November 30. The process of investigation to secure a change of rate on any commodity may be started by any one of four methods. These are:
1 Upon request of the President.
2 Upon resolution of either or both houses of Congress.
3 Upon motion of the tariff commission itself.
4 Upon application of any interested party when there is good and sufficient reason therefore in the judgment of the commission.

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL, Oct. 24.—The government of President Washington Luis, which for three weeks has been fighting a widespread movement in Brazil, was overthrown today and the president resigned.

The blow which overthrew the administration was struck by a group of army and navy officers in Rio de Janeiro itself. A provisional government was set up and a proclamation being issued to all Brazilians to end the civil warfare now in progress and to establish peace again.

The coup came with dramatic swiftness shortly after midnight. Military police and some troops taking their positions around the presidential residence and cutting off traffic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Thoughts while strolling: What in the world is a fitted bag fitted for? W. T. Benda, who makes those masks. A West 47th street hat check girl is the image of Janet Gaynor, red hair and all. Beggars who sit on church steps baring afflictions. New buses with side doors.

Eva La Gallienne, a London, Eng. girl, who made good in the city. No actress in New York inspires such applause as Belle Baker singing "Eli Eli." How many Sobol Brothers are there? That cop certainly won't give that gorgeous lady a ticket? He did. The old fish-face.

Who remembers when plates were turned upside down over the silver in setting the table? Something a little bit all right about a young father who pushes a baby buggy these snooty days. Musical exchange bulletin board: "Wanted: Six hot crooners who look like Vallee!"

Comedy counter clowns in the Coney Poles. A milk white roadster trimmed in garnet leather. And the show girl who drives it. A wise poet fathered the line: "Gather ye rosebuds while ye may!" And who knows right off who won the war of Roses? Gil Patten, the white-haired Frank Merriwell author.

Johnny Gruelle, who draws hilarious cartoons of the crossroads. A movie star has to be good to last six months these days. Youngsters going to Lysistrata—being obscene and not heard. Curb comics are saying Gilda Gray has a touch of writher's cramps. And the new dog song is: "Litter by Litter."

The sun sinks behind Jersey in a splendid flame. Nothing will renew faith like watching a sunset. And some morning I must sneak up on a sunrise. They are not hard to take either. Rat faced pickpockets who hang out at jewelry auction sales. They always work out on me in the subway.

Dinner neckers drifting to shadowy Chinese cafes. Orange drink places still running full tilt. The glassy smile of ladies who must live. Mark Hellinger and his wife, Gladys. What inspires a fellow to take up trombone playing as a career?

The dollar-five-and-ten game outlives a fad. Each player goes shopping with a dollar and the one bringing the biggest bundle of five and ten cent store articles to the cocktail party wins all the truck and a dollar from each player. After that everybody settles down to a stretch of serious drinking.

A huge chortle in a musical show: A young girl is asked if she is going to take bacteriology at college. She chirps: "Don't bacilli!" And if the boy editor of College Humor doesn't collect a fair take of royalties on that one he is not commercially conscious.

Speaking of colleges, I recently saw a letter written by a glorious Old Dad to a son who was graduated two years ago. The lad has been clerking in a Paris bank. Said the letter:

"Dear Son: I am transferring $15,000 to your Paris account. At the moment money has a glamour in your eyes. In thirty years the thrill of spending will begin to vanish. I do not expect you to account to me for a penny. If it undermines your moral stamina you would fall later in some other way. So I shall feel no blame. It would please me tremendously for I love you with a greater devotion than you will ever know, if you wrote me at least twice a month wherever you are, but that is only a fatherly wish and not a command. I have arranged that your job there or one similar in New York awaits your return. You are to have for one year the leisure and freedom I would have liked to have had, but missed.—Dad."

Then there is the bankers' son who left home suddenly in a huff, leaving a note reading: "You haven't a chance to make me one of your vice presidents. I'm determined to amount to something."

Courtney Cooper tells of the East Sider who grew to middle-age without leaving Manhattan Island. Then he went on a trip to Denver. In the middle-west solitude near Cleveland he was gazing out the train window at the pastoral beauty. Finally in a philosophic blurt he exclaimed brightly: "No matter where you go, you always find human life."

Proper Sleeping Position

"Do you sleep on your left side, or is the right side the best side to sleep on?" was a question asked me the other day I scratched my head and appeared very thoughtful, but to be perfectly frank, I could not recall on which side I do sleep.

Numerous textbooks, investigations and articles have been written on this subject and it seems no two authorities agree. As a matter of fact, I do not believe it makes much difference whether we sleep on the right side or on the left side.

Sleep is brought about by fatigue and the body attempts to rest by the relaxation afforded during sleep. If you are accustomed to sleeping on your left side and sleep well, by no means force yourself to change to the right side.

The position you assume when going to sleep is not the position in which you find yourself on awakening. The body changes its position many times during the night. Have you ever watched children sleep, and noticed their curious contortions. They will assume different positions tossing about quite frequently, yet they are thoroughly relaxed and are resting in their sleep.

Some authorities advise sleeping on the back, and then again others do not. Some advise sleeping on the abdomen and others warn against it, stating it is dangerous. If we were to listen to all the advice, we would not know how to sleep and the thought of that alone would probably keep a good many of us awake.

The most frequent question asked is whether it is safe to sleep on the left side. This question arises because of the location of the heart on the left side. Most persons believe it is not advisable to sleep on the left side, on the theory that it interferes with the action of the heart. This theory has never been proven and appears to be to be very doubtful. I would advise you to sleep on whichever side suits you. No catastrophe ever occurred from sleeping on the left side. I doubt if it will ever be proven it makes any difference. Providing we sleep well and get up refreshed, it matters not what the posture is.

Recent observations conducted at the Mellon Institute in Pittsburgh, show that restful sleep is accomplished by many bodily positions. As a result of these studies it would be ridiculous to advise any healthy individual to spend the night in one position. It is rare indeed for one position to be maintained during the night's sleep. Even if you decided you should sleep on your right side it would be necessary to strap you down to guarantee that position. This would be the only method I know of to keep you in that one position. This method will not be recommended.

of course. Give yourself plenty of fresh air at night. Do not pile on the bed clothes too thickly. Do not crowd your stomach with a lot of unnecessary food just before retiring. Go to bed to sleep and leave it to your instinct to determine the position your tired body is to take.

What Others Say

A PROLIFIC NUT

Prophets of the Wellesian school who find delight in picturing the future progress of mankind have frequently foretold a time when a whole meal may be concentrated in a small cube. But why stop there? Even now there exists a common natural product, a nut with properties so extraordinary that its high food values becomes in comparison almost negligible. A negro scientist of Tuskegee Institute has experienced for years with this nut and asserts that he has extracted from it products which have a hundred uses. The materials obtained from this nut, he says, may be used to grease an automobile, to cover a kitchen floor, to feed the cow and the horse, to stain furniture, to dye garments, as a pickle, breakfast cereal, a beverage resembling cream to wash dishes, powder the nose and make paper, ink and rubber. Mr. Edison will note the last possibility with interest.

This marvelous product is the peanut. Who ever dreamed that a peanut stand was a potential drug store, grocery, garage, hardware shop and stationery store combined? Perhaps some day an inventive genius may create a household chemical plant for processing peanuts to extract from them some of these innumerable synthetic materials. Until that time arrives the housewife must be content to shop for the necessities of life—New York Sun.

FIVE COUNTIES OFFER SENATOR GREAT SUPPORT

Congressman Appears

The Republican leaders state in addition to the county organizations, workers appointed from Columbus are pushing the McCulloch-Cooper fight, practically every church in the district has a committee working to further the dry cause.

Cadiz Proud of Dryness

These rural communities take their dryness with all the seriousness that its benefits mean to them. At Cadiz, Harrison county seat and home of Rupert Beetham, state prohibition director, pride is voiced in the fact that no saloon has operated there since 1894. Cadiz frequently is spoken of as the driest town in the dryest county in the state. Harrison politicians even go so far as to say that McCulloch will lead the ticket in their county. To them McCulloch means something more than a Republican nominee—he is the personification of the forces which oppose metropolitan wet tendencies.

Precincts To Be Polled

campaign in Harrison county is V. F. Rowland, young Cadiz attorney, the county's Republican chairman. Mrs. Lillian Brown is in charge of the Harrison women workers.

The Harrison Republican organization plans to poll each of the 31 precincts in the county and make certain that every elector gets to the voting booths on Nov. 4. The two important Republican newspapers in the county, H. B. McConnell's "Republican" at Cadiz and the Williams family's "Press" at Preport, both will make definite stands for McCulloch in their issues for next week. Murphy also is expected to make a strong race in Harrison county where he has been a favorite always.

Meeting at Carrollton

In Carroll county the McCulloch-Cooper, Murphy movement is going steadily ahead under direction of George Tihlin, Carrollton merchant, who serves as Republican county chairman, and Miss Katharine Westfall, women's chairman. Yesterday at Carrollton women from all over the county gathered at a luncheon meeting arranged by Mrs. Cronin and Miss Westfall. The speaker was Mrs. Clara Wood Derr, Cleveland, member in the Ohio assembly. Honor guests included Mrs. Edwin T. Wood of Steubenville, the Jefferson county chairwoman, and Mrs. Sam McClain of Bellaire, head of the Belmont county women. This meeting served as the inaugural point in the Carroll county women's campaign.

An important development in the Carroll campaign will be the return to the county of Ed T. Crawford, former state senator from the Stark-Carroll district, now acting as assistant treasurer to the U. S. shipping board. The Republican committee has arranged for Crawford to canvass the county and it is extremely likely that he may devote some time to covering Stark county.

Paper Indorses McCulloch

Harry Kemmer's "Free Press Standard," the Republican organ in Carroll county, already has taken a definite stand for McCulloch.

Belmont county women began their serious work following a luncheon meeting Wednesday in St. Clairsville under the direction of Mrs. Cronin. A permanent organization was formed to be known as the Belmont County Council of Republican Women which immediately became a member of the Ohio Council of Republican Women. Officers are Mrs. Sam McClain, president; Mrs. Mayme H. Miller, vice president; and Mrs. W. O. Hoge, secretary-treasurer. This group will hold nightly meetings in various precincts until the day of election. C. Brady Bradfield, head of the Belmont Republican committee, feels that McCulloch's visit into the county several weeks ago is bearing more fruit each day. Belmont politicians believe that any strength Bulkley may show will be derived from the Bellaire-Bridgeport, Martins Ferry area along the river, but feel that the strong rural vote will more than offset any Bulkley advantages.

Miners Hostile To Bulkley

Any fear in the 18th district that the Carroll mining vote might be cast against McCulloch has vanished with the growing hostility of the miners toward Bulkley. This antagonism had its inception through the connection of the Cleveland candidate with the Warner Collieries, an organization which was instrumental in crushing the miners union in Belmont and Jefferson counties.

Congressman Murphy, whose reelection is considered assured, has been spending a great deal of time canvassing the district in behalf of the entire Republican ticket. Murphy is the most popular representative the district has even had at Washington and his influence in each of the five counties carries great weight. Murphy in an interview last night said "McCulloch will go forward from this week all through next week, gaining strength right up until the time of the election on Nov. 4."

Forrest Richmond of Toronto and Thomas Hudson are the Republican campaign heads in Jefferson county and John Irwin of East Palestine is the Columbiana county chairman.

Campbell George also of East Palestine is state central committeeman for five counties.

Officer Warned

YOUNGSTOWN, Oct. 24.—State Prohibition Agent E. C. Farmer said yesterday he had received an anonymous letter warning him "to lay off or we'll get you." He has led raids in the last 10 days resulting in arrest of 20 persons.

stantial decrease in factory output from May to August, September had shown an upward trend, which did not however, reach former production figures for the same month. Employment in factories also increased, though less than the usual gain for this season of the year. Residential construction was said to have increased materially.

The chief gains in employment came from the fruit and vegetable canning and the clothing industries and from retail establishments and coal mines. Employment dropped in the iron, steel, automobile and lumber industries, and so did their production.

Suggestions reaching the farm board that its supply of wheat be turned over to feeding the jobless drew from Chairman Legge the statement the board would be glad to do so if congress would reimburse it for the cost of the grain, which was acquired in stabilization operations.

Ambulance Speeding To Hospital With Two Dying Women Strikes Machine; Hurts 3rd Person

TOLEDO, Oct. 24.—An ambulance speeding to a hospital with two sisters, brides of a few months, collided with an automobile last night and placed a third woman near death.

The ambulance was carrying Mrs. Mary Emch, 18, of Pemberville, O., and her sister, Mrs. Ethel Langerman, 19, of Woodville, O., when it struck an automobile in which Mrs. Anna Clark, 42, was a passenger.

The two sisters, already near death from burns suffered in an explosion while they were cleaning curtains, were pulled from the ambulance as the front of it burst into flames. Mrs. Clark was hurled 20 feet into the side of a building and it was feared she too would not live.

Beautiful hair!

Modern hair dressers arrange the hair so beautifully that it's bound to attract attention. That's why it's so important to guard its color and lustre; keep it in perfect condition.

There is no surer, simpler way to do this than with Danderine. Each time you use your brush, just moisten it with this delicately fragrant liquid. Then as you draw it through your hair, it removes the excess oil; brings out the natural color; makes the hair fairly sparkle with new life and lustre.

How much easier it is to arrange the hair afterwards. How it stays in place. And try "setting" the waves with Danderine. They stay in so much longer.

Danderine quickly dissolves the crust of dandruff; puts the scalp in the pink of condition; helps the hair to grow long, silky and abundant!

Ohio Owes It To Herself To Return

U. S. Senator
Roscoe C. McCulloch

His record in office shows that he distinctly deserves to be returned to the Senate. He is a statesman of the McKinley school—fearless, clean and capable.

He vigorously opposes the lowering of our standards of living as advocated by the internationalists.

He is opposed to those who have voted for tariff for revenue only and for the letting down of the bars of immigration to the hordes of cheap labor from abroad.

He fearlessly fights to protect our business, our wages, our agriculture and our homes.

A vote for McCulloch is a vote for American standards.

A. H. FRITCHMAN
Word was received by Salem relatives this morning of the death of Addison Hutton Fritchman, 60, of Cleveland Heights, which occurred at 12:30 a. m. Friday.
He was the son of Joseph and Mary Hutton Fritchman and was born near Winona.
His Salem friends will remember Mr. Fritchman when as a boy he worked in the store for Henry Hawley on Main street. After three or four years of training with Mr. Hawley, he went to Burrows Brothers in Cleveland, where for many years he was in the department of office supplies. Leaving Burrows to go into business for himself, he handled office supplies.
During his life in Cleveland Mr. Fritchman was an active worker in the Methodist Episcopal church. At the time he suffered an attack of heart trouble two years ago, he was giving many hours of his time as chairman of the building committee of the new church, the Church of Our Saviour, Cleveland Heights.
In 1896 Mr. Fritchman was united in marriage with Esther Hole, daughter of Jacob Hole. To them two children were born, Mrs. Edwin H. Cowley, of Cleveland Heights, and Rev. Steven Hole Fritchman, Petersham, Mass.
Besides his two children he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Charles M. Hole, Cleveland, and two brothers, E. B. Fritchman, Sebring, and John Fritchman, Phoenix, Ariz. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

JAMES HULLIHAN
James H. Hulihan, 72, of Pocatello, Idaho, died Tuesday morning, relatives in Salem have been advised.
Mr. Hulihan was well known in Salem having lived here until 17 years ago when he moved west. While a resident of this city he was employed by the Deming company. He came to Salem from Letonia 29 years ago.
Mr. Hulihan is survived by his widow and these children: Mrs. L. H. Smeltz, Cleveland; Mrs. P. J. Phelan, Thomas, Hulihan and P. J. Phelan, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. L. D. Bryson, James Hulihan and Catherine of Pocatello, Idaho.
The body will arrive here Saturday evening and will be taken to the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Morningstar, 291 West Eighth street. Interment will be Monday morning at Mt. Calvary cemetery, Letonia.
Friends may call any time Sunday afternoon and evening.

MRS. ORA E. NUSBAUM
Mrs. Ora E. Nusbaum, 74, died at 1:45 a. m. Friday at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. McConner, 850 West State street. She had been ill for a long time.
Mrs. Nusbaum, daughter of Charles and Maria Taylor, was born Aug. 12, 1856, north of Salem. She had spent her life in this community. She was a member of the Christian church.
She is survived by three children: Mrs. McConner, with whom she made her home; R. C. Nusbaum, Canton; J. D. Nusbaum, Buffalo, and five grandchildren. One son, Jesse C. Nusbaum, died 11 years ago.
Funeral service will be held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday at the McConner home with Rev. M. J. Grable, officiating, assisted by Rev. C. F. Evans; interment in Grandview cemetery.
Friends may call at the home 7:30 until 9 p. m. Saturday.

(By Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, Oct. 24.—The trails of Gov. Myers Y. Cooper, who asks re-election, and George White of Marietta, Democratic nominee to replace him, crossed for the second time during their campaigns last night in the governor's home town.
Addresses by Robert J. Bulkley, Democratic candidate for senator, and a number of state candidates from both parties were added to focus the state's political attention here.
Gov. Cooper was the guest at a testimonial dinner at which he made his first prediction of a Republican victory next month and struck back at critics of his prison and welfare program.
After reviewing his administration, Gov. Cooper took up the Easter Monday prison fire disaster and asked "where were these men, holding the office that we have held in this brief time, that now under take to make political capital out of a situation about which they did nothing?"
At Lima this week former Gov. James M. Cox blamed the prison disaster on the Cooper administration. Cooper continued that he did not wish to cast reflections on previous administrations for their neglect, and I may say oversight, in not having made this penitentiary fireproof 15 years ago, but in the brief period of time that I was governor I could see the necessity of making the prison fireproof and the work was under way. Albeit disaster caught us before we could finish the job."

together the billions needed to carry through the plan.
Russia does curious things. For instance, last year it distributed 12,000 tractors, and $24,000,000 worth of other machinery among peasants and others.
THE NATIONAL INCOME of Russia for 1930 is only 33,000,000,000 rubles, about $19,800,000,000. Yet, how much you can do with a little money. Our income is more than a hundred billions of real dollars. But if you suggested giving 12,000 tractors to anybody, you would be called, not merely Bolshevik, but insane.
MACAULAY, able head of Canada's Sun Life Assurance company, advises our federal reserve banks to buy $500,000,000 worth of good bonds, thus restoring price levels, increasing money in circulation, starting business recovery.
The federal reserve and treasury department officials say it would be dangerous "to force currency into circulation."
The war forces currency, billions of it, into circulation. Federal reserve presses worked overtime. But somehow, everything was prosperous, at least for a while.
It is proposed to spend two hundred millions, or so, of public money, to help the unemployed. Corporations are urged to tax themselves and contribute.
But you are told there must be no "dole," none of the English system, under which government gives the minimum necessary to live in cash, directly to those out of work.

PRESIDENT LUIS RESIGNS; REBELS IN FULL CONTROL

Provisional Government To Succeed Regime Of Former Executive

It called upon the revolutionists to suspend their offensive and the federal troops to do likewise. In addition it asked that plenipotentiaries confer with the provisional government set up in Rio De Janeiro in order to bring about pacification of the government.

The proclamation named five lords as headquarters of the provisional government. It was signed by Loao De Deus Menna Barreto, general of the division, and Colonel Bertholdo Klinger as adjutant.
Term Ended Soon
The resignation of the president, whose four year term would have come to an end November 15th, had been demanded repeatedly by the revolutionary leaders who since Oct. 3 have been attempting a march on Rio De Janeiro and Sao Paulo from three directions.
The rebels had directed their movement also against the inauguration of Julio Prestes, president-elect, who was supported by Washington Luis.

Fall of the Brazilian government marks the fourth overthrow of a De Jure administration by revolution in South America since the first of the year. The governments of Bolivia, Peru and the Argentine have fallen before revolutionists. Some unrest developed also in Cuba, Chile, and to some extent in Mexico, but the governments of those countries remained in control.
In no case, except Brazil, however, did the rebellion occupy more than a few days. The tremendous popular uprisings which accompanied the movement were sufficient to upset the regime without great difficulty. Military governments are at present in power in Bolivia, Peru and Argentina. There was every prospect, until the resignation of Dr. Luis that the Brazilian revolution might stretch on for months.

ABILITY OF SENATOR TO STAGE COMEBACK FACES ELECTION TEST

Editor's Note—This is one of a series of dispatches prepared by the Associated Press describing the political campaign in various states.

LINCOLN, NEB., Oct. 24. — The ability of a veteran senator to "come back" after years of political retirement will be tested in the forthcoming Nebraska senatorial election.

The veteran Gilbert M. Hitchcock, 71, a senate leader in "the Wilsonian days," is seeking to return to the upper house. He stepped from retirement to win the Democratic nomination and is now contesting with a formidable opponent in Senator George W. Norris, Republican insurgent. Hitchcock has campaigned actively.

There are political seers in Nebraska who contend that Senator Norris is unbeatable. In reply to such contentions, the Democratic nominee, tall, gray and dignified of mien, has retorted that Norris "is not a senator for Nebraska but from Nebraska."

Woman In Race

The third senatorial candidate, Mrs. Beatrice Fonten Craig, of Lincoln, entered the race by petition. She is a dry and has announced that if elected she will support the administration of President Hoover.

In some quarters the campaign is viewed as a test of party regularity. In the primary Norris was bitterly opposed by standpat Republicans. The primary was endorsed by the threatened candidacy of a second George W. Norris. This contest, in which Norris decisively defeated the regular, W. M. Sebbins, drew the senate campaign funds committee to investigate the filing of Norris No. 2, a small town grocer.

The investigation unearthed friction between the Norris group and administration supporters.

Norris Defends Stand

In the present campaign Senator Norris has not only defended the many stands as he has taken in opposition to the administration but he also has served notice that he would never accept the senatorial assignment if he were restrained from what he termed "conscientious legislation."

Hitchcock has emphasized his allegiance to party ties and has declared that political parties are essential to a successful government.

In the gubernatorial contest are two men who were opponents for this office at the election two years ago, Gov. Arthur Weaver, Republican, and Charles Bryan, Democratic nominee.

Bryan, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee in 1924, a former governor of Nebraska, and brother of the late William Jennings Bryan was defeated by Weaver in 1928. Weaver seeking his second term, is campaigning with Senator Norris.

Nebraska also will select six congressmen and state officers. The prohibition issue has appeared in the campaign only in the second congressional district, (Omaha) where both the Republican and Democratic candidates are opposed to the present prohibition law.

COURT NEWS

Files Action
Mary Hunt Sturgeon, who lives at 329 East Second street, in Salem, one of the heirs to the estate of the late Priscilla Hunt King, of Salem, has filed an action in the common pleas court asking that the court order partition of property in the estate, and get the share of the plaintiff off to her.

There are 51 defendants to the action, including Jesse Sturgeon of Salem, many of the defendants being scattered from New York to California, and all being either cousins or nephews and nieces of the deceased who died on May 30, 1929, leaving neither widower nor children. The property to be divided among these heirs is a double house located on lots 112 and 114 on East High street in Salem.

WESTBRIDGE, N. Y. — There are anti-spooning vigilantes in this Long Island village. The secretary of a duly appointed committee has reported to the Taxpayers' association that 27 parties were broken up in a month. If a vigilante sees an occupied car parked more than half an hour he telephones the police and there is a summons.

NEW YORK — Honeymooners are exempt from assentee voter privileges. By ruling of the board of elections they must be home on election day or not vote. Some voters who can't be home are allowed to mail ballots.

Showing at the Royal, tonight and tomorrow are the two feature pictures, "Rich People," starring the popular Constance Bennett, and "Trailing Trouble," featuring Hoot Gibson, hero of the screen's best western cinemas.

"CAUGHT SHORT"
At the State
"Caught Short," Eddie Cantor's collection of witticisms about the recent stock market crash is said to have furnished the inspiration for the new all-talking comedy of the same title which opened at the Grand theatre last night with Marie Dressler and Polly Moran in co-starring roles and Anita Page, Charles Morton, T. Roy Barnes, Edward Dillon, Alice Moe, Gwen Lee, Lee Kohlmar and Greta Granstedt supporting.

Miss Moran and Miss Dressler have the roles of New York City landladies to whom the lure of stock speculation brings first unexpected profit and subsequently disaster when the inevitable Wall Street catastrophe occurs. The metamorphosis of the two ladies from their Washington Square habits of cooking and housecleaning to a period of suddenly acquired luxury in a fashionable Atlantic City hotel makes up what is reported to be their outstanding co-starring vehicle surpassing by far such previous silent efforts as "The Callahan" and the Murphys and "Bringing Up Father."

"LET US BE GAY"
At the State
Norma Shearer again scores a triumph in versatility in "Let Us Be Gay," her new picture which opened Thursday at the State theatre.

This delightful picturization of the Rachel Crothers stage hit further evidences Miss Shearer's superb skill in essaying roles of smart sophistication.

As Kitty, the dowdy wife who awakens from marital doldrums to find her dashing young husband in the arms of a more attractive woman, Miss Shearer undergoes a striking metamorphosis that turns her out as an alluring woman of the world, a feminine cosmopolite to be reckoned with in mixed gatherings.

Rod La Rocque is the husband in this instance and his frantic efforts to remain his wife's love is amply justified by the startling change he finds in her. Marie Dressler is the eccentric old dowager whose trickery brings them back together, but not until she has almost lost the trick by playing her trumps at the wrong time.

Deputy Wounded By Ohio Newspaperman

MADISON, W. VA., Oct. 24.—Elmer Jones, assistant editor of the Guyan Valley News, a weekly newspaper, shot and seriously wounded Deputy Sheriff Amos Sullivan early today while Sullivan allegedly was trying to break into the newspaper plant.

Jones admitted the shooting but was not arrested. Luther Jones, his brother and editor of the paper, said he believed Sullivan intended to destroy the newspaper plant because of the weekly vigorous attacks upon the so-called "Hatfield clique" in Logan county.

Grid Spotlight In Ohio Centered On Smaller College Games

THE DAY In Sports

GRID STARS IN BASEBALL
GRID SUPERSTITIONS

With the attention of sports lovers focussed upon football the baseball crowd feels somewhat out of the picture, but some of the best known big leaguers were real gridiron stars in their school days. Mickey Cochrane, who is by way of being the best catcher in baseball and who starred in the past two world series, was one of the best halfbacks who ever toted a pigskin.

It was on a frosty October day at Boston University, Mickey's last year, that he was pitched against the powerful Crusaders of Holy Cross. B. U. was rated about with B. O. in the critics' opinions, and the game popularly supposed to prove a romp for the Worcester eleven. Held Down Holy Cross Score

Mickey, who in those days was known merely as Gordon, was a halfback on the Boston U. team. For the entire first half, he and his teammates assimilated a terrible beating, but so valiantly did he fight, and so hard did Cochrane rush and kick that single-handed he held the score down to 7 to 0.

Just before the half ended, Holy Cross solved the problem or thought they had, by knocking Mickey cold. He was absolutely out and was carried from the field and to the hospital.

But they reckoned without the fighting Irish spirit in that brawny body of the present Philadelphia catcher. Mickey came to, fought off the doctors, got into his clothes and made the game by the time the fourth period began.

In that fourth period, Cochrane carried the ball for Boston University on every available occasion, took it the length of the field's line after time, and scored a touchdown.

Got That Needed Point

This left the Boston boys a point behind. Who should try for the extra point? Who, indeed, but Mickey or rather Gordon? "Take it, Gordon," said the B. U. captain who happened to be none other than his hero.

Cochrane kicked the goal and tied the score, shortly before the game came to an end.

Rip Collins, the Detroit pitcher, was a great halfback down in Texas, while Charley Berry, Red Sox catcher, was an All-America and at Lafayette, Mike Gazeika was another famous Lafayette football star. Bruce Caldwell and Ken Strong, two of the greatest halfbacks ever to play in the east, recently reached the big leagues, although none of them attained the fame that was to follow Mickey Cochrane.

Hank Bruder "Jinxed"

Hank Bruder, Northwestern's unluckiest athlete, injured and out of the game through the better part of two seasons, finally adopted the number "13" on his uniform to bring him luck. And it did. Ten days after he adopted the number he came down with smallpox and now Northwestern's best chance of victory is looking out the window of the isolation hospital.

Bruder is not the only football figure to spread his superstitions before the world. A few years ago, you may remember, Red Grange came out of the West, wearing that famous "77" and proceeded to parade up and down the spine of Lou Young's Pennsylvania pet. Since that day Lou's youngster, acting as mascot for the Penn team, has worn a jersey with the mystic "77" spread wide across the back.

Just for luck, of course, and for the most part it has worked.

There are a lot of little superstitions among football players and coaches, just as there are in other forms of sport. But for the most part the footballers won't admit it. Being college men and representatives of higher institutions of learning they are inclined to feel a bit ashamed of their own superstitions and don't like to talk about them much. But college tradition—well, that's different. They'll talk about tradition by the hour, even though some of the traditions are little more than overgrown, educated superstitions.

Traditions, for the most part, are the outgrowth of rivalry between schools. For instance, here's the old ax tradition in California—a tradition grown out of the theft, by California of Stanford's huge wooden battle ax years ago.

The Michigan-Minnesota brown jug tradition is well known. Those two teams, as everyone knows, battle each year for the possession of an ordinary earthenware jug, which goes to the winner. That's an interesting story, too. Some years ago Michigan was playing in Minnesota, and as an extra precaution the Michigan coach took several jugs of water for the players to drink.

One of the jugs was taken down into the field to be used during the game, and at the end of the contest, the jug was stolen by a Minnesota student. It's that jug, stolen from the Michigan bench years ago, which today is the center of all the brown jug tradition you read about.

Out in Colorado a few years ago two brothers captained the rival University of Colorado and Colorado Aggie teams. Kidding before the game the two boys bet their shirts on the result. The university won and immediately after the game was

Important Battles To Be Played Saturday; Tech Plays Reserve

Ohio State's football team is idle this week-end, permitting the spotlight of interest to play wholly upon the 37 smaller colleges of the state this week-end.

Consequently, chief interest will be directed to Cleveland where Western Reserve will take its fourth consecutive whipping from Carnegie Tech; to Oxford where Miami attempts to stop the Buckeye championship march of the champion Ohio university team; to Delaware where Ohio Wesleyan entertains Hoge Workman's Simpson college team in an inter-sectional affair; to Oberlin for the traditional battle between Wooster and the Yeomene, and to New Concord where tangle Mount Union and Muskingum, two of the strongest Ohio conference teams.

That started a tradition. The shirt bet has been continued each year since, and at the end of the game the winning captain marches to his rival and collects his bet before the two teams leave the field.

Indiana and Purdue battle each year over an "old oaken bucket" and Illinois and Ohio State fight it out for the possession of Illibuck—a crochety snapping turtle of uncertain age and somewhat treacherous disposition. Out in Oklahoma two teams battle annually for the possession of a stuffed and mangy Tiger—and great is the jubilation when this uncertain specimen of the taxidermist's art is hauled to the trophy room by the victorious eleven.

Pinceton's bonfire of victory is a famous affair—staged elaborately each time Princeton wins a championship. But few people perhaps know that the scene of

All these games are scheduled for tomorrow but there are four today which are distinguished for different reasons.

Heidelberg vs Toledo
Heidelberg's undefeated team, one of the finest in Ohio, meets University of Toledo, in Toledo tonight. The Toledoans have not won a game and probably won't even give the Student Princes a scare.

Wittenberg, one of the ablest teams in the state although once beaten and twice tied, journeys to Cincinnati for a game with Xavier.

Davis and Elkins sails into John Carroll in Cleveland tonight. The Scarlet hurricanes from West Virginia probably will make it two out of three victories.

In the only afternoon game today, Bowling Green and Findlay, the only undefeated teams in the bonfire touches on another tradition. For buried in the ground where the bonfire is held is the famous old revolutionary cannon over which Princeton and Rutgers students battled a half century ago.

These traditions go on forever. The oldest grad remembers them and reveres them along with the youngest undergraduate. They're sound silly, to tell about—but they are a mighty important adjunct to that thing called college spirit. Each year finds new ones formed, but it is seldom indeed that an old one is forgotten, out-lived, or forsaken. And when you come right down to it, it's tradition and the symbols of tradition that distinguish college football from the professional game; it's tradition that makes for college interest. It's one thing that professionals, no matter how good they may be, will never be able to take from the college boys.

The really important games, however, are set for tomorrow.

Ohio university, undefeated champion of the Buckeye conference in 1929, plays its first defense of the title at Miami. Both teams are strong. It is Miami's homecoming and the Red team will fight hard.

Cincinnati Meets Denison
Cincinnati and Denison will probably be playing for the last place in the Buckeye standings at Cincinnati. Denison is likely to win, but then may not.

Oberlin and Wooster, old time rivals of many years, probably will play their usually colorful game but Wooster appears the stronger this season. Muskingum too rates precedence over Mount Union and the winners will undoubtedly have a lot to say about "the best team in the Ohio conference this year."

Other conference games involve Baldwin-Wallace at Akron, in a game Akron should win; Capital at Ohio Northern which may see Capital's three-game winning streak broken; and Marietta at Otterbein in a free-for-all. Capital has an excellent chance to win, especially because of northern's injuries.

Dayton's ambitious team will be in the east Saturday playing Boston college and probably will lose three games in a row for the first time in seven years. Kenyon looks capable of taking Rochester in another eastern game but Case is practically sure of its first defeat in attempting Michigan State at Lansing.

Fight Results

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—A new young heavyweight from out of the west has hurdled "that dangerous stumbling block to all fighters' ambitions to reach the inner circle of championship contenders — Johnny Risko of Cleveland.

Dick Daniels of Minneapolis, knocked the Cleveland brawler down for the count of nine in the second round of a 10-round match here last night, then withstood Johnny's terrific comeback and finally won on a foul in the seventh.

The Minneapolis battler, out-weighted almost 13 pounds as he entered the ring at 185½, first surprised the crowd by scoring a knockdown in the first round. Risko seemed dazed as he started the second round and took a terrific right hook to the head. The referee reached nine in his count before Risko got to his feet.

At the start of the third, however, Johnny gave Daniels a heavy beating with blows to the body and kept the barrage up until the end of the contest, although Daniels rallied to win the fifth round and was exchanging punches on even terms when Risko landed a clear low blow after having previously been warned.

Risko forfeited his share of the gate receipts under the Massachusetts rules.

BIG GAMES IN EAST SATURDAY

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Half a million football fans will turn out for the east's more than 50 games tomorrow, but close to 350,000 of them will be scattered among half a dozen contests.

In point of attendance, Yale's joust with the Army at New Haven; the all-metropolitan duel between Fordham and New York university in the Yankee stadium and Notre Dame's invasion of the east to meet the Pitt Panthers, will run a close race.

These three games should draw about 230,000 spectators with 80,000 in the Yankee stadium and 75,000 apiece in the Yale bowl and the Pitt stadium. Some 120,000 probably will be distributed among three other big duels, Harvard-Dartmouth at Harvard stadium, Temple-Villanova at Philadelphia, and Princeton-Navy at Princeton.

Lagging a bit behind in point of attendance will be such clashes as Brown-Holy Cross at Providence; Penn State-Colgate at State College and Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson in a night game at Atlantic City.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE
By Charles Mallet

It is seldom anyone has the courage to write an expose of a man prominent in politics, who has held offices of great responsibility, during his lifetime. But Sir Charles Mallet, puts Mr. Lloyd George under a pitiless microscope in his book "Mr. Lloyd George." He portrays the redoubtable Lloyd George as a veritable bull in a china shop, who can always be depended upon to say the wrong thing at the wrong time, and to make a wrong gesture at the most inopportune moments. He withholds nothing, prefacing his remarks with the statement that he wishes "to take full responsibility" for what he has written. Sir Mallet says in no uncertain terms that Lloyd George's reputation has sprung from legend and not actual knowledge of the facts. He states that Lloyd George has been guilty of many misstatements from the platform, sacrificing truth for sentimental emotion. In short Sir Charles Mallet considers the return of Lloyd George as any sort of power would be a grave disaster to Great Britain. He has been frank—no one can accuse him of not being a fearless wielder of a biting pen. His study of Great Britain's one time man of the hour is starting news, especially in consideration of the fact that the world has always believed him to be indispensable to Great Britain's welfare.

The book is published by the E. D. Dutton Co., New York.

EVERYMAN: A MORAL PLAY

The theatre is one of the oldest of the arts. Its most superb examples were born, developed and refined in the fire of ancient Greece. Then it pined away until the middle ages when it was reborn in the church. The greatest and simplest of all the medieval moral or mystery plays is EVERYMAN, an inspiring and dignified play, exalted in thought but phrased in the quaint dialect of the early centuries which lends to its lofty character a humorous turn.

In the midst of his earthly revels, all mankind, symbolized by one named Everyman, is called to account by the messenger Death, to the Most High Father. Death, in this allegory is the acid test, and not one of Everyman's earthly companions will accompany him on the perilous journey, save his Good Deeds who had at that to be raked from the ashes of his misdeeds. Kindred, Fellowship, Goods, Strength, Discretion, Five-Wits, Beauty and Knowledge, all desert him.

Guided by Good Deeds and purged by Confession and contrition, Everyman lays himself peacefully in his cave of sleep and is welcomed on high.

The charm of this edition lies in Thomas Derrick's wood cuts which pierce the meaning of the text but are exceedingly diverting in their tendency to mirth.

RESINOL DID WONDERS FOR Red Cracked Skin

"After suffering some time from a bad cold my nose became unusually red and sore. I tried various creams and salves without obtaining a bit of relief. I didn't have much confidence that Resinol Ointment would be any better but tried it anyway and all I can say is it worked wonders. My hands also were so chapped they cracked and almost bled. They were in such bad condition I could not hold anything. However, thanks to your Resinol Ointment they are now healed." (Signed) Mrs. Janet Gilmore, Philadelphia, Pa.

Sold by all druggists. For free sample, write, Resinol, Dept. 51, Baltimore, Md.

LEGAL NOTICE

To The Electors of Salem City
 Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of Salem City that the proposition of an additional tax levied over and above the 15 mill limitation of law for the purpose of providing sufficient operating revenue for the said city of Salem, will be submitted to electors of said city on occasion of the November 4, 1930 election.
 A special levy is declared by the Council of the said city of Salem to be necessary, because by the exercise of full power of authority within the limitations of law, the total amount that can be so levied will be insufficient for operating expenses, particularly for the operation of the Salem City Disposal Plant.
 The question to be decided is whether or not a levy, outside all limitations of law, to amount not exceeding one mill shall be made for a period not to exceed five years.

Ohio Girl is Brightest

FROM three to twelve. That's the period which is most important to your child's development. And that's the time many are retarded mentally and physically by constipation.

Watch your child, mother! At the first sign of bad breath, coated tongue, headache, biliousness, lack of energy or appetite, give a little California Fig Syrup.

This pure vegetable product cleanses, regulates a child's bowels without discomfort. No danger of forming the laxative habit when California Fig Syrup is used. For it tones and strengthens weak bowels. In colds or children's diseases, employ its gentle aid to keep the system from becoming clogged with germs or waste.

Mothers everywhere are eager to tell of the benefits secured for their children. Mrs. C. J. Polzner, 1314 East 88th St., Cleveland, says: "I have used California Fig Syrup with Rita Agnes for two years in cases of upsets, bad breath, coated tongue or constipation. It keeps her the brightest, happiest six-year-old I know!"

Look for the name California when buying. That is on every carton of the genuine, for your protection.

Former Messenger Boy Will Make Bow As Opera Singer

(By United Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 24 — Hamilton Forrest, a young American composer who a few years ago was a Chicago office boy, will be given his first public recognition when Mary Garden sings the title role of Camille in the 1930-31 Civic Opera season.

Forrest was recognized first by Mary Garden as a musical genius. He has had no college education, but his limited musical schooling, beginning his career as a messenger boy for a brokerage house. He abandoned the world of finance for that of music when forced to stop because of a nervous breakdown.

Forrest, an aggressive 28-year-old man, has few of the moody characteristics popularly expected of famous musicians. Both his parents had musical ability and his early training caused him to retain an interest in music even during his career as office boy.

Private Audience

His first outstanding classical production was Yvra, which he played for Mary Garden at a private audience. The prima donna recognized his worth, helped him to arrange for further training in France.

The young composer, upon reaching Paris, lost interest in study,

however, and went to a French village in Normandy. It was there that he conceived the idea for Camille.

He completed a draft of the opera, which will make its world premiere in his home town, and returned to America to consult with Miss Garden. He returned to France the following year and completed the orchestration.

Forrest drew his inspiration for the opera from the famous story and play by Alexander Dumas. Much of the original drama, he changed, however.

Jazz In Opera

Camille is one of the few operatic works ever written which contains modern language and jazz music. Current song hits are used in one scene.

The plot was taken from the life of a girl whom Forrest knew in Normandy. Her life and death clearly parallel that of Camille, but the staging of the opera is entirely different from the drama, with division in three acts and four scenes.

Marguerite and her lover, Armand Duval, are the chief characters. Armand's father asks Marguerite to withdraw from the life of his son and she consents. She tricks Armand into believing she has ceased to love him and they part.

IN CASE AFTER CASE OWA-TON-NA PROVES ITS MERITS

"This Fine Old Indian Remedy Has Been a Wonderful Help in Our Family," Says Mr. Myers

The praise which Mr. Fred W. Myers, 1216 Bycamore Ave., S. E. Canton, Ohio gives Owa-Ton-Na is not unusual in its history since thousands of endorsements have been received in mild as well as obstinate disorders. Mr. Myers says: "For several years, I suffered with serious disorders which seemed to keep me in a run down condition. Stomach, liver and kidneys all seemed to be afflicted. I was troubled with constipation and rheumatic pains in my hip and shoulders caused me a great deal of suffering."

"I started to take Owa-Ton-Na to build up my system and it certainly has done the work. Why, I feel like a different man altogether. In a short time, my bowels began to act regularly, headaches and dizzy spells disappeared. My kidneys acted better than they have for a long time. Bladder irritation disappeared. Now I can sit down to the table and enjoy a good meal. I have a wonderful appetite and food doesn't disagree with me. Those terrible pains in my hip and shoulders are gone. I go to bed at night and sleep fine, getting up in the morning feeling refreshed. My wife and entire family are taking Owa-Ton-Na and are having wonderful results. It certainly has been a big help in our family and we gladly recommend it to other sufferers." Why suffer from these conditions which cause so much misery? Owa-Ton-Na has proved its merits in thousands of cases of kidney, liver, stomach and bowel disorders, rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness and a general run down condition of health. # HASSEURS JOIN INSURGENT ARMY

Federal Battalion Quits
To Join In Movement
In Brazil Battles

CURITYBA, PARANA, Brazil, Oct. 24.—The Brazilian revolution-command was informed today the nineteenth battalion of insurgents, stationed at Timbo, state of Bahia, had revolted and joined the insurgent movement.
Timbo is a railroad center about 30 miles away from Bahia, third largest city of Brazil, and the insurgent forces claimed that the battalion's defection opened up the way for their advance directly into Bahia on the railroad line between the two cities.
It was presumed here that the battalion of Captain Juarez Tavora, which within the past few days has succeeded in over-running the states of Parana, Alagoas and Sergipe, cannot be far from Timbo if it has not already reached this point in its advance down the coast toward Rio de Janeiro.
Rebel troops claimed yesterday to have repelled a strong federal attempt to destroy Senegs bridges, cross the Rio Taguary, just south of Itarare. The effect would have been to cut the line of communication of the insurgent vanguard which has advanced beyond Itarare.
